TOBYHANNA POST

FEATURE PHOTO

It has been just over 20 years since Team Tobyhanna earned its first Shingo Prize. The Shingo Prize recognizes excellence in quality and efficiency through the application of Lean Six Sigma. The bronze medallion was earned by the team supporting the AN/TPS-75 radar system at the time of the award. Pictured are (from left) Clark Ross, Gary Sherman, former depot commander Col. (Ret) Ron Alberto, Keith Wheeler, and Brian Wesolowski.

New strategic plan connects Tobyhanna mission to national defense priorities

Tobyhanna Army Depot has launched a new blueprint to keep pace with rapidly changing military technology, aligning the organization's strategic focus with broader Department of War (DOW) efforts. The roadmap, locally referred to as Tobyhanna's Campaign Plan, aligns Tobyhanna's daily operations and strategic plans with the broader goals of its headquarters, Army Materiel Command (AMC) and the Communications-Electronics Command (CECOM), as well as the U.S. Army and the DOW overall.

Snow Day or Workday? How to Check TYAD Operating Status

Winter storms can make regional travel hazardous, but knowing where to get quick, official operational updates ensures you stay safe and informed before heading out.

If severe weather threatens, do not guess. Check these official channels for delays or depot closures:

1. Weather & Operating Status Hotline: Call (800) 429-4496 for the latest recorded message.

2. DOD Alert! Notification System: Register your mobile phone and email through the DOD Alert Mass Warning and Notification System to get automatic text and email notifications sent directly to you.

3. Local News Broadcasts: The Public Affairs Office immediately notifies local television stations when operating hours change.

Remember: Tobyhanna Army Depot (TYAD) is open on all regular workdays unless officially announced otherwise via the methods above.

EWC Observes Red Ribbon Week

Representatives from Tobyhanna Army Depot's Employee Wellness Center recently brought Red Ribbon Week awareness to Cafe 1A, setting up a table to engage with employees and spread the word about making healthy, drug-free choices. Employees stopped by to learn more, grab some information about drug addiction and show their support for a drug-free lifestyle!

Troop Carrier, Big Smiles!

Tobyhanna Army Depot had an amazing time at the annual Honesdale Jaycees Halloween Parade! We brought out one of our troop carriers, and it was incredible seeing the smiles on the kids' faces as they jumped in the back to join the fun. This parade was a fantastic opportunity to connect with our neighbors, share what we do, and get Tobyhanna's name out to the greater Honesdale community. Thank you to everyone who came out, said hello, and made this spooky season so memorable! 🍁👻
