

Dec. 7 Attack Recalled; First Shots Fired Here

By MSGT. ROY C. CARBINE

The shots that defeated Japan were fired here at Kaneohe 16 years ago tomorrow. For the first shots of World War II were fired by attacking Japanese planes here at the then Naval Air Station moments before the main attack on Pearl Harbor was launched on Dec. 7, 1941.

And the result of the sneak attack on this Pacific bastion was ultimately to result in the unconditional surrender of Japan. A Kaneohe-based PBY possibly had the first enemy contact of the war at 6:37 a.m. on what President Roosevelt was to term the 'day of infamy.' Just off Pearl Harbor on routine patrol the PBY spotted an unidentified submarine, and its pilot radioed the nearby destroyer, USS Ward. The plane circled the area, and watched the Ward sink the sub 14 minutes later.

While it was later established the submarine was part of the reconnaissance group of the Japanese task force attacking Pearl Harbor, the initial report of the action sent high ranking Naval authorities at Pearl Harbor and here into consternation. Popular belief was that the Kaneohe PBY and the Ward had acted hastily and that the sub was American. The submarine incident was still under discussion at the Kaneohe Naval Air Station an hour later when the first flight of 12 Japanese fighters shrieked in over the base. They came in so low the pilots had to pull back on their sticks to strafe Kansas tower. A control tower signalman received mortal wounds and became the first American casualty of World War II.

The new Commanding General, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, is scheduled to arrive Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 10 at Honolulu airport on a United Airlines flight. He is Lt. Gen. Vernon E. Brigade Slates Windward CPX For Dec. 18-19

Continuing Operation "Trade-winds," which was staged on Kauai last August. Leathernecks of the 1st Marine Brigade, FMF, are preparing for a command post exercise commencing at 8 a.m., Dec. 18-19 in the Fort Hase, Kapaa, Waikane and Bellows Airfield areas.

Primarily a map exercise, the CPX will test staff procedures in Brigade Headquarters, communications over extended distances, and generally provide opportunities to improve and evaluate command and tactical problems as they arise in ever-changing simulated combat situations.

Lt. Col. A. M. Zimmer will head the umpire organization, which will scrutinize all phases of the operation down to the battalion level.

During problems located off MCAS, Kaneohe, vehicle convoys will be formed and escorted to the CPX areas by the Hawaiian Armed Services Police.

Participating in the exercise will be Brigade Headquarters, 4th Marines, Marine Aircraft Group 13, Brigade Artillery, Service Support Group, Marine Helicopter Squadron-161 and Brigade Headquarters Company.

Lt. Gen. Edwin A. Pollock, who commanded the approximate 70,000 Marines of the Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, left the Islands Monday aboard the Matsonia. Upon leaving, he sent the following message to all FMFPac units, "On my departure from the Fleet Marine Force Pacific, I want to express my sincere appreciation and thanks for the loyal support rendered to me by all hands. Your willing cooperation has made this tour both pleasant and rewarding."

Lt. Gen. Pollock had been CG, FMFPac, since Sept. 1, 1956. Next duty for the general is as Commanding General, Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, with headquarters in Norfolk, Va. He takes over the post held by Lt. Gen. Ray A. Robinson who is scheduled to retire sometime prior to Jan. 1.

Lt. Gen. Megee, who is a veteran of the Korean fighting, three World War II campaigns and pre-war expeditionary duty in Haiti, China and Nicaragua, is the first Leatherneck aviator to hold the post of Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps and Chief of Staff.

Gen. Megee was born June 5, 1900 at Tulsa, Okla., and is a graduate of Oklahoma A&M College. He enlisted in the Marine Corps on March 8, 1919, and was commissioned a second lieutenant May 4, 1922.

Gen. Megee was Deputy Commander, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, from Jan., 1954 to June, 1955.

Marine Corps Commandant To Visit Air Station Mon.

Gen. Randolph McCall Pate, Commandant of the Marine Corps, will pay a whirlwind visit Monday to the 1st Marine Brigade and the Marine Corps Air Station as part of a tour of Pacific area Marine activities. The Commandant is scheduled to arrive at Brigade headquarters by helicopter at 10 a.m. and will receive honors on Dewey Square.

The honor guard will be composed of members of the Brigade Headquarters Co. with music provided by the Brigade Band. The ceremony will include a 17-gun salute by the Brigade Artillery, 3rd Bn., 12th Marines.

Shortly thereafter, the Commandant will confer briefly with the Brigade commanding general, Brig. Gen. Avery R. Kier, prior to a briefing in the administration building conference room.

A reenlistment demonstration on Platt Field is slated to be viewed by the Commandant about 11 a.m. He will then board a helicopter for a glimpse of the Bellows Field training area before visiting MAG-13 headquarters.

At 1:30 p.m., following lunch, the Commandant will be briefed by Col. Jack R. Cram, CO, MCAS and Staff Officers at Kansas Tower. He is scheduled to depart Kaneohe about 2:30 p.m. Honors upon his departure will be rendered by an honor guard composed of members of MCAS Headquarters and Headquarters Squadron at Hangar 105.

In the event of inclement weather, honors will be rendered upon his arrival by sedan at Hangar 105, and the reenlistment display, and the trip to Bellows Field will be cancelled. Instead, a visit to the 4th Marines command post and a tour of MCAS will be substituted.

Gen. Pate is slated to arrive at Hickam Air Force Base at 5 p.m. tomorrow, Sunday, he will be briefed at FMFPac and will inspect Camp Smith.

The Commandant is slated to leave Hickam at 4 p.m. Monday.

Gen. Pate last visited the Brigade and Kaneohe Bay Marine Corps Air Station in November, 1956.

Reenlistment High Posted By 1stMarBrig During Nov.

Not content to let record performances stand, the 1st Marine Brigade attained a spectacular record-breaking 82.5 per cent reenlistment rate for the month of November to send tumbling the old Brigade mark of 77 per cent. The old mark was set during April of this year. For the ten month period prior, the Brigade had averaged a 59 per cent reenlistment rate.

Monthly reenlistment rates in the Brigade have climbed steadily since the beginning of the current fiscal year on July 1. The current Brigade average is a respectable 66 per cent. During the five-month period, the percentages reflect as follows:

July, 57.8; August, 60; September, 63; October, 73; and November, 82.5.

The 82.5 mark is the highest monthly percentage achieved since the air-ground team was activated at K-Bay in 1953. The reenlistment percentage is based on the number of men who reenlist out of those who are eligible for reenlistment. Men reenlisted include those who extend an enlistment, reenlist upon expiration of enlistment, those who reenlist early, and Reserve personnel who integrate into the regular Marine Corps.

The reenlistment effort of the 1st Marine Brigade has been noted in a message to Brigade units from the commanding general, Brig. Gen. Avery R. Kier. The message is quoted as follows:

"During November units of the Brigade reenlisted 64 Marines for a reenlistment rate of 82.5 per cent for the month. This is the highest reenlistment rate ever attained by this Brigade and is a reflection of the outstanding job being done by the officers and men of this command in maintaining a vigorous reenlistment program. Number reenlisted and reenlistment rate by unit follows: 3rd Bn., 12th Marines, 3/100; HMR(L)-161, 1/100; Hq. Co., 1/100; 4th Marines, 35/89; Service Bn., 14/77; MAG-13 10/68."

The reenlistment average of the 1st Marine Brigade is 26 points above the goals established by the Commandant of the Marine Corps and CG, FMFPac.

The high Brigade reenlistment rate will be graphically portrayed Monday for the Commandant of the Marine Corps with a demonstration on Platt Field.

Will You Be Next?

With only 22 per cent of the motor vehicles on the Island of Oahu, military personnel have been responsible for approximately one-third of the accidents during 1957. Seventeen servicemen have died and in every case alcohol and/or excessive speed was involved.

Recently military and civil authorities agreed that "On-Station" traffic offenses would be reported to and recorded by the Honolulu Police Department. Further, that "On-Station" suspensions or revocations of driving privileges may result in similar action as pertains to Territorial Driver's Licenses. Statistics show that individuals average one accident for each five traffic offenses committed—where do you stand? Will you be next?

A recent traffic survey indicates that some of our military and civilian personnel are taking advantage of their fellow drivers during the after-noon rush by taking the Kaneohe cut-off and then turning back on Kaneohe Bay Drive and crowding out the Kailua bound traffic.

This form of discourtesy or lack of consideration for the other fellow is also a traffic violation in that the directional arrows clearly indicate Kaneohe and Kailua bound traffic.

Should the license numbers of such offenders be reported to the Provost Marshal, extension 72629, they will be cited to appear before the Station Traffic Court for such administrative action as may be deemed necessary.

The owners of all privately owned vehicles operating aboard this station are cautioned that the operation of such vehicles aboard any military installation is a privilege and not a right and may be suspended or revoked by the Commanding Officer for cause at any time.—Maj. T. W. Foxworthy.

TOASTMASTERS CLUB 1805

By Skipp Wishall

THE GOAL IS LEADERSHIP

Training in speech, desirable as it is, does not constitute the final goal of Toastmasters. Rather, the mastery of the art of speech is a means to the real end, which is to produce men who can lead wisely and intelligently in their various spheres of activity.

The well balanced, intelligent speaker is the natural leader in any group of which he is a part. Our nation needs strong leadership today — needs it perhaps more than any other thing. Every community in the nation needs leadership. Honest, unselfish, constructive leadership which you cannot obtain across a bar or in a bowling alley or even at the barracks.

The Toastmaster's Club is the ideal training station for leaders. The attainment of any Toastmasters club may be best measured by its success in developing leaders from its own ranks. This explains the tremendous growth of Toastmasters which is expanding by one club a day or nine-hundred members a month. It is a good thing to help a man learn to phrase and express his thoughts so as to command a hearing. It is vastly better to help him learn to direct his thoughts honestly, to face facts squarely, and to lead his fellow men wisely.

Both statements of the rapid growth of Toastmastering and the need for this type of training, are borne out by the fact that at Kaneohe a group of civilians from the Public Works and Navy Supply Dept. are holding a membership drive to formulate the third Toastmaster Club aboard the base. Interested civilian personnel are asked to contact Mr. Donald Bowman (Eng. Div.) for further information.

The local Staff NCO Toastmasters meet every Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the Staff NCO Club. Walk in and enjoy the most interesting and fastest moving 90-minutes of fellowship aboard the base.

NCO Wives Club

Members of the Staff NCO Wives' Club will open the holiday season with a Christmas Dinner-Dance in the club patio Friday, Dec. 13. Cocktail hour will be from 5:50 til 6:30 p.m. followed by a buffet dinner and dancing to the rhythm of the Music Makers.

Reservations must be made prior to Dec. 12, with one of the following: Rose Scott, phone 256991, Marilyn Murray, phone 242021, and Muriel Allison, phone 242358. Cost of the dinner will be $1.35 each for husbands and guests.

Chaplain's Corner

By FATHER C. J. MAGUIRE

Not long ago "This Week" magazine and a late "Reader's Digest" in its millions of copies printed something very old. They were not criticized for printing something that was not new to the World. Rather their readers responded with gratitude and praise. What they printed was a little prayer written seven hundred years ago by St. Francis of Assisi. As you will notice this short prayer sums up perfectly the ideal relationship between us and our neighbors and our God. It also teaches us perfectly how to live with ourselves. It is worded as follows.

"Lord, make me an instrument of Thy Peace!

Where there is hatred . . .

let me sow love

Where there is injury . . .

pardon

Where there is doubt . . . faith

Where there is despair . . . hope

Where there is sadness . . . joy!

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek

To be consoled . . . as to console

To be understood . . . as to understand

To be loved . . . as to love, for

It is in giving . . . that we receive

It is in pardoning . . . that we are pardoned

It is in dying . . . that we are born to eternal life"

Traditionally, and where the tradition came from I don't know, the Christmas boom has gotten underway immediately after Thanksgiving Day.

But I still haven't completely forgotten the big Thanksgiving Day meal I enjoyed last Thursday. Together with my family, I ate the big meal in Mess Hall One. I suppose there were a few of the chronic grippers who found something to complain about but I'll be doggoned if I could find anything worth a complaint.

The food was delicious and plentiful and it looked appetizing. I know this much: there were many men who put in long hours in order that the majority could have a dinner beyond compare. They've certainly got my thanks—and no complaints.

The time of the year to think about income tax has arrived again. Why it always comes at about Christmas time I don't know. Even if it is the end of the calendar year, it seems it should be possible to hold off the news a few weeks.

The bad news I'm talking about is in the shape of W-2 forms which the disbursing officer, Maj. Leader, says will be doled out, starting about the end of this month.

Of course, there are those who are fortunate enough to get some money back. It must be nice but I usually end up owing a bit more than was deducted.

I suppose it's only right that I should ante up part of my pay each year. There's nothing quite like getting a pay raise and then turning it back in to Uncle Sam so that he can pay the raise.

This is the time of the year when it just seems as though there is never enough money for Christmas. If we have more, we must aim a little higher or else the cost of living has really kept pace, because there never is enough to go around.

The only consolation in this sad state of affairs comes from the certain knowledge that there are a great many people in the same boat. This isn't much help when you need another 10 but at least it makes it possible to walk down the street secure in the knowledge that most of the other people you're looking at also feel that thy must have mismanaged somewhere along the line.

If there were any doubters, this past weekend should have proved rather conclusively that weather is no respecter of reputations. Even beautiful Hawaii with its enviable reputation for near-perfect climate and weather conditions had its come-uppance with almost its first hurricane in history.

I think we can consider ourselves mighty lucky that the storm center changed direction and headed west but Kauai got a pretty fair taste of what hurricane Nina had in store for any land masses it might reach.

As usual on a Marine installation, everything was in readiness and advance planning had worked out the details of what should be done in any eventuality.

Even the civilian community appeared to be extremely well organized. Damage from record winds was negligible and utilities were repaired in remarkable time.

I shudder at the thought of a full-scale East Coast type hurricane whipping across one of these islands, though. In Florida, for instance, structures are, for the most part, built with hurricanes in mind. I'm not convinced that the buildings here in Hawaii would stand much of a chance. I'm thinking particularly of the private homes with their single wall frame construction. I've seen a few of these modern "grass shacks" after a particularly virulent Kona gust has removed the roof and then stacked the rest of the house up in the yard.

I know that my little house right on the beach at Waimanalo was flexing enough in Sunday night's gusts to breed in me a fervent hope that the gusts wouldn't get any stronger. The roof apparently flexed enough to suck the trap door right up into the attic. I kept telling myself that the house had been there many years and that there was no reason it shouldn't be there a little longer. And each time the reasoning was beginning to get through another gust would push the wall against the back of my chair and light shining through the window would pick out the roof eaves doing a crazy, undulating dance. I wondered whether the nails and the termites holding the house together might be getting a little tired.

All I can say is that we made it through another one.

If you've been reading the WINDWARD MARINE, it should be apparent that traffic safety is getting a mighty big push. With violations and accidents increasing, this emphasis appears quite necessary.

This is the time of year when the number and severity of accidents normally increases, anyway; so it seems a very appropriate time to lower the boom.

That's exactly what the military and civilian authorities plan to do, too. Lower the boom.

I think it would really pay to read and heed the articles appearing in this newspaper, particularly the traffic violations column where the bad news is printed. This news will tell you very quickly what happens to the unwary.

Observe Fire Safety Precautions In Your Christmas Decorations

Statistics regarding Christmas holiday fire losses show that needless personnel injuries, loss of life and property damage result from the use of fireworks and lack of appropriate safety measures in connection with Christmas trees, lighting and decorations, according to a 14th Naval District directive.

In order to prevent possible fires during the Christmas season, it is urged that the fire safety precautions listed below be observed:

Large Christmas trees create a greater hazard than small ones, so limit the size in accordance with practical requirements. Christmas trees have a tendency to look very much smaller out in the open than they do in the living room and many purchasers, with years of experience, come home annually with a tree better suited to a gymnasium than a living room.

Cut an inch or so off the butt of the tree as soon as you get it home. If you have bought it early stand it in a pail of water in a shady spot outdoors. When the tree is brought into the building it is best to use a stand that allows the butt to rest in a container of water. Refill the container daily as the tree absorbs the water.

Be sure that the tree is well supported and that it is well away from sources of heat. The tree should be so placed that it will not block exits. Lighted candles or other open flames should never be used near the tree.

Accumulation of wrapping paper under the tree should also be avoided as a fire hazard. The tree should be removed as soon as possible after the holidays.

Check electric lights and connections before they are strung on the tree. Worn, frayed wires or electrical cords are dangerous. Metal foil icicles and tinsel should be kept out of bulb sockets. Electrical circuits should not be overloaded and all Christmas lighting should be turned off when leaving the building or before retiring.

These rules, if observed, can help everyone have a happy (fire safe) Christmas in 1957.

Sand Table Demonstration Slated For Dependents, Guests Wednesday

A special sand table demonstration, conducted by the Landing Force Training Unit (LFTU) currently instructing Brigade units, will be held next Wednesday, Dec. 11 for dependents, guests and members of other services. Scheduled to start at 8 p.m., the demonstration will take place in Hangar 105.

The sand table demonstration shows an amphibious assault by a regimental landing team and includes the necessary props and pyrotechnics to add realism on a miniature scale. The bomb explosions that send houses toppling are small scale, too, and the occasional boom of a firecracker jerks spectators to immediate attention. Naval gunfire and close air support aircraft soften up the beach before the assault.

Troop transports, landing craft, helicopters, buildings, aircraft and terrain are built to scale.

A word of warning from the Brigade recommends that children under eight years of age stay home that night as the realistic combat sounds included in the demonstration are likely to get young minds and imaginations working overtime.

The LFTU, which consists of 23 officers and 23 enlisted men, is based at the Amphibious Training Command, Pacific Fleet, Naval Amphibious Base, Coronado, Calif.

The unit began instructing units of the Brigade Nov. 25 and will continue until Dec. 14.

Used Car Dealer In Kailua Placed 'Out of Bounds'

Martin Motors, located on Kulei rd., Kailua, has been added to the list of areas and establishments declared "out of bounds" for military personnel, according to information contained in Brigade Bulletin 1620 published Tuesday. All military personnel are prohibited from entering the above establishment unless required to do so by competent authority. Service personnel whether in uniform or civilian clothes found in, or entering or leaving, Martin Motors, will be placed under apprehension by the Hawaiian Armed Services Police (HASP) and will be subject to disciplinary action.

Meritorious Masts Awarded 2 Marines

The smart military appearance of their platoons earned for two Leathernecks of the 1st Bn., 4th Marines, meritorious masts which were conducted last Friday by Lt. Col. E. Leslie Medford, battalion commanding officer.

The two Marines are Sgt. Donnel Jose of the 1st Platoon, "B" Co. and Sgt. William A. Fogarty of 3rd Platoon, "B" Co.

Sgt. Jose Sgt. Fogarty

During the Brigade and Regimental inspection on Nov. 20, while acting as platoon commanders, the "smart military appearance" of the two men and their platoons "was so outstanding that it was the subject of special commendatory remarks by the Commanding General, 1st Marine Brigade, Fleet Marine Force, and the Commanding Officer, 4th Marines." It is obvious, states the citations in each case, that this condition did not occur by accident, but was the result of "your diligence, zeal and forceful leadership."

ComFairHawaii Post To Change Dec. 17

Rear Adm. B. E. Moore will relieve Rear Adm. L. B. Southerland as Commander, Fleet Air, Hawaii, at 10 a.m., Tuesday, Dec. 17.

The ceremony will take place outside the administration building at the Naval Air Station, Ford Island.

Interested friends, officers and their ladies have been cordially invited to attend.

The Legal Beagle

The Fallacy of Base Insurance

By LT. COL. R. F. CARRATY

Present regulations now in force on the Marine Corps Air Station require that all privately owned vehicles on the Station, except those admitted on temporary basis, must be registered with the Station Provost Marshal. Before a private vehicle can be registered, the owner of the car must submit proof that he has minimum personal injury and death liability insurance of $5,000 if the accident involves one person or $10,000 if more than one person is involved. He must also furnish proof that he has a $1,000 property liability insurance policy.

The Commanding Officer, in setting the above minimum insurance requirements, has as his prime purpose protection of personnel and property located on the Station. However, significance to you as an individual car owner goes much beyond this limited purpose. The Commanding Officer is not empowered to require personnel of this Station to carry a similar type insurance while operating his car off the Station. As a result, many Marines have purchased automobile insurance policies which provide the required coverage only while the vehicle is operating on the Base. Thus the so-called "Base Insurance" meets the minimum requirements of insurance required by Station Regulations and personnel taking this type of insurance are able to move their cars on the Station. Many Marines believe that this procedure represents a "smart way to beat the system," but the truth of the matter is the Marines that purchase only Base Insurance are only fooling themselves and in effect taking a gamble which, if they lose, will probably be the greatest tragedy in their lives.

If an operator of an automobile, who is not insured is involved in an accident, he may be sued by the injured party and face a judgement that may hang over him for years to come. All his property which he owns or will own in the future may be subject to seizure by the court in satisfaction of the judgement. If he is a Marine, his salary as a civilian after discharge, may be garnished in satisfaction of the judgement. In short, the person with a judgement over his head is not a free man until the judgement is paid in full.

As a car owner, carrying adequate insurance protection, is as important as keeping gasoline in the car—in short its cost should be considered as part of the cost of operation. If you can't afford gasoline for the car, it will not run, likewise, if you can't afford insurance, you can't afford to move the car. Besides the disastrous consequences that might occur, there are other results which while not disastrous may be vastly inconvenient.

The Territory of Hawaii has passed the Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Act. Under the terms of this Act, all accidents resulting in death or bodily injury or property damage in excess of $100.00 must be reported to the Chief of Police by individuals involved in the accident. Individuals so involved may be required to deposit within 20 days security in the amount fixed by the Chief of Police to cover a possible judgement. However, the security deposit is not required by those individuals proving that they have existing insurance coverage similar to that required by the Station.

If an individual required to provide a security by the Chief of Police, is unable to make the security deposit within 60 days, the Chief of Police will suspend the operator's license. This suspension will not be lifted until the individual is discharged of the liability by the court or the injured person.

The individual who drives a car without adequate insurance is flirting with disaster. If you have a car—don't be satisfied with Base Insurance. Driving conditions on the Base are kept safe by the Provost Marshal. Where you really need insurance coverage is off the Station. If you now have insurance, look into the possibility of increasing your coverage, as judgements are becoming larger and larger and your coverage may not be adequate. Remember, if you can't afford adequate insurance for your car, you can't afford the car.

"TO BUY OR NOT TO BUY," that is the question being pondered by Capt. and Mrs. Rudolph W. Bolyes and daughter Brenda, 21 months. In almost three hours, 57 Christmas trees were sold at the Marine Exchange Toyland (topside) last Saturday and sales have been moving briskly this week, an Exchange spokesman reports. A shipment of 750 silvertips from the Sierra Nevada mountains arrived aboard K-Bay earlier that morning. Prices range from $2.25 to $6.05 depending upon the size and heights of the silvertips which start from four feet and soar to about 10 feet. Capt. Bolyes is the assistant S-1 officer for MAG-13.

Texas Voters Must Pay State Poll Tax

Marine Corps Bulletin 1742 contains information concerning the payment of poll tax in the state of Texas. The state tax is $1.50 and some counties levy an additional tax of 25 cents. Likewise, some cities also levy an additional tax. For information on a specific locality, write to the County Tax Collector, county of residence, requesting an application form for payment of tax.

The tax must be paid not later than Jan. 31, 1958 by persons qualified and desiring to vote in the 1958 elections in Texas.

PROMOTIONS

First of the month promotions for both officer and enlisted personnel in Brigade and Station threw the Informational Services Office into high gear this week as busy Photogs clicked the shutter close to 200 times.

Civil Service

OPERATION HYPO

This activity is cooperating with the Public Health Service, and the 14th Naval District in participating in the Salk poliomyelitis vaccine inoculation program for civilian employees and their dependents.

The program will cover all civilian employees on the Station, Federal or otherwise. They may also bring in their dependents to receive the inoculations.

Volunteer doctors and nurses from the community who are serving without pay will administer the shots.

The price is very reasonable—$2.00 per shot—payable in advance to the Industrial Relations Dept. IRD upon payment will issue the necessary tickets to the person to present to the Dispensary.

There is no maximum time between inoculations. If a person received his first shot a year ago and failed to get the remainder of the series, he may now start with the second shot.

Operation HYPO is tentatively scheduled to start at this Station, first series on Dec. 17-19 and the second series Jan. 14-16. The third series will be given at the proper interval.

EMPLOYEES TO ELECT WELFARE BOARD MEMBERS

Station Bulletin 12065, which was distributed this week to all civilian employees, establishes Dec. 18 as the election date for the seven member board which will govern the newly established Civilian Recreation and Welfare Association.

This organization, effective Jan. 1, 1958, replaces the Civilian Employee Relief Fund and the C. E. A. and incorporates many of the functions formerly performed by these groups.

Today is the closing date for nominations of board members. Although the election procedure in most respects is similar to the Employee Council election, supervisors (GS-9, Leadingmen and above) are NOT excluded from the eligible list.

This is an important association, requiring keen judgment on the part of board members, who will be responsible for the planning of various welfare and recreation activities and the administration of the association's funds. Employees are urged to give considerable thought to the caliber of persons they nominate and elect to office.

FOUR PW EMPLOYEES RECEIVE CASH AWARDS

Four Public Works employees received checks this week for their adopted beneficial suggestions. Benjamin Denis, Jr. was awarded $20.00 for his suggestion to place a guard around the hoist motor in Boiler Plant No. 1.

Manuel Ferreira and John Y. H. Kim received $10.00 each for their joint suggestion on securing the bearing to economizer shift with two set screws.

The fourth award of $15.00 went to Edgar W. Alexander for his adopted suggestion to provide a wrench for removing rain bird sprinkler from the coupling.

THEY CAN COOK, TOO!

On Nov. 18 the Packing and Crating and the Shipping and Delivery Sections of the Supply Department joined forces in Bldg. 269 for their annual Thanksgiving lunch. The turkey, with all the trimmings, was prepared by the fellows themselves.

Have a Problem? See 'Y' Counselor

The Armed Services YMCA-USO has recently acquired the services of a counselor for active enlisted military personnel who may have problems and troubles that they would like to discuss with a qualified person. The service is being offered on Saturday at 11:30 a.m. Personal interviews may be arranged for at this hour through the second floor Program Desk.

Mr. Robert W. Hambrook, retired, comes to the Armed Services YMCA-USO as a highly qualified gentleman in the field of counseling. He was formerly with the United States Office of Education and for several years was chief advisor to Haile Selassie of Ethiopia on the matters of education for that country.

THE WINDS CAME—This particular piece of sad looking real estate is a direct result of the high winds aboard MCAS last weekend. Some time late Saturday night or early Sunday morning when Hurricane "Nina" was at its peak this auxiliary washroom and head in the 2 area was demolished. Only parts of the walls, ar-down by Public building was condemned and was due to be completed in one night. Works in the near future but "several days."

Air Station Sustains Minor Damage During Course of Hurricane 'Nina'

By PFC. BILL GOINS

Hurricane "Nina," packing wind gusts up to 82 miles an hour, slammed and buffeted Hawaii with its worst storm since August 1950. A spectacular rainstorm with high winds saturated the islands with over 15 inches of rain. After the first gusts of wind had hit Oahu about 7:10 p.m. last Saturday the Police Dept. reported nearly $3,000 worth of property damage within a few hours.

When first sighted, "Nina" was approximately 450 miles southwest of Oahu and was moving toward the islands at about 45 miles an hour. At 11:30 a.m. the Navy went on standby alert and warnings were broadcast to all military ships in the immediate area.

At exactly 3:45 p.m. "Nina" was officially declared a hurricane and was only 375 miles southwest of Oahu.

Damage incurred aboard MCAS was much lighter than expected. The high cliffs and bluffs of the Koolau Mountain Range acted as a protecting shield for this side of the island.

Sustained wind velocity on the Air Station was as high as 47.2 miles and at times gusts up to 57.7 were experienced. Wind completely demolished an old auxiliary washroom and head in the MACS-2 area. The huge searchlights located atop Kansas Tower had to be brought to lower ground.

Various groups of men in Hq. & Hq. Sq. and Brigade personnel were placed on a standby basis and liberty was cancelled until the threat of the storm had passed. Most troops appeared slightly nervous to this reporter. Some men walked the floor and crowded around the radio to hear bits of information. It all added to the tension. They seemed to be waiting for something that never came. Some were disappointed, others, relieved.

As the approaching hurricane drew closer to Oahu the eye of the storm veered slightly to the west and the winds felt locally were only those of the outer perimeter. The island of Kauai was hit the hardest. A steady downpour deposited a whopping 20.42 inches of rain there in 14 hours while MCAS recorded a measly 1.90 inches over the entire weekend.

Since Kona storms are just beginning it is safe to assume that "Nina" will not be the only storm this season. We can expect them at any time until about the last of February.

Six-Man FootballSERV. BN. WIN SKEIN HALTED BY 1ST BN., 4TH, GRIDDERS

The 1st Bn., 4th Marines staged the upset of the year in the Brigade-Station 6-Man grid circuit last week by nipping the league leading and undefeated Serv. Bn. Warriors 33-32 last Thursday, Nov. 28, in K-Bay's own Thanksgiving Day "classic." The loss was Serv. Bn.'s first in eight games.

In other action during the week's play, 2nd Bn., 4th Marines whipped Prov. Bn., 4th Marines, 48-0 last Tuesday, Nov. 26; Marine Barracks gave down HMR-161/HqCo (Brigade) 60 in a high-scoring game 49-0 and on the same day, Hq&HqSq eked out a 44-40 victory over the 3rd Bn., 12th Marines' Cannoneers.

In the final game of the week here Monday afternoon, Marine Barracks, P.H. recorded their second triumph in six days with a 54-6 lacing of last-place Prov. Bn., 4th Marines.

The Serv. Bn.-1st Bn. encounter was a "battle royal" throughout and was witnessed by an enthusiastic standing-room-only crowd at Field 1 here.

The 1st Bn. gridgers jumped off to an early lead in the first period but the Warriors responded with a strong second quarter surge to own a 26-21 bulge at the intermission.

The Warriors looked like they were going to fashion another one-sided win as the second half got underway by tallying on the opening kick-off, but that score proved to be their last as an inspired battalion squad came back strong with a pair of TD's to nip the league leaders. Both extra point attempts were unsuccessful.

Pfc. A. Lincoln made it 32-27 early in the third period by scoring on a 35 yard end-around play.

With the ball on their own 25 yard line, Johnson passed to HM3 H. J. Carroll, who in turn lateraled to Pfc. R. L. Johnson, the latter scampering 40 yards to the 1st Bn. gridgers their fourth and most important victory in seven starts.

The team standings in the Brigade-Station 6-Man grid circuit are as follows:

TEAM	W	L	T
1. Serv. Bn. (Brigade)	7	1	0
2. 2nd Bn., 4thMar	6	1	0
3. Marine Barracks, P.H.	6	2	0
4. Camp Smith	5	3	1
5. 1st Bn., 4thMar	4	3	0
6. 3rd Bn., 12thMar	2	3	0
7. MAG-13 Champions	3	3	1
8. Hq&HqSq	3	5	0
9. HMR-161/HqCo (Brig)	2	5	0
10. 3rd Bn., 4thMar	0	6	0
11. Prov. Bn., 4thMar	0	6	0

CAGE CONTESTS TO BE AIRED BY STATION KGU

Many of this season's basketball games at Kaneohe will be broadcast over the facilities of Radio Station KGU, it was learned here this week.

Veteran sportscaster Gene Good furnished the radio audience with a play by play account of Wednesday night's game in Hangar 103 for the first of this season's broadcasts from K-Bay.

Present plans call for KGU to air 11 to 12 basketball games a week this season. Sharing the coverage chores with Gene Good will be the Navy's Chief Chuck Leahy.

With the Marines riding on top during last year's cage season and interest throughout the islands running high, the indomitable Good managed to cover a majority of the games played here.

In addition, he covered many of the games away from home.

MARINE HOOPSTERS CLOBBER FORD ISLAND AND HICKAM

Coach Maj. Ira Norfolk's Hawaii Marine cagers romped to an easy 86-48 victory over NAS Ford Island here at the Station Gym Monday night in the kick-off tilt of their 32-game Hawaii Senior Invitational League schedule. Starting slow but rapidly gaining momentum, the Leathernecks found themselves having trouble in the early minutes, but drove to a 42-24 halftime advantage and from then on pulled away rapidly with an almost constant deluge of two-point

The Marine scoring attack was well balanced with Lt. Joan Fannon grabbing high point honors as the ex-Notre Dame star found the hoop for 16 points. Fannon had seven field goals and two free throws. Following close behind was Lt. Ted Henderson, team captain, who garnered six baskets and two charity tosses to end up with 14 total points.

Lt. Jere Lawrence had himself a fairly productive night also by cashing in for 11 marks. The rest of the team scoring went this way: Lt. Weiman, 8 points; Pfc. Wilson, 7 points; Cpl. Mitchell 5 points; Lt. Keller and Cpl. Kelley both had 4 points; Pfc. Wall had 3; While Lt. Julius, Pfc. Daugherty, and Pfc. Slaughter rounded out the scoring with 2 points apiece.

The Marines were unable to bust loose completely and had to play fairly cautious slowed-down ball because the gym floor was made hazardous by moisture condensing from the humid air.

After gaining a fairly comfortable 42 to 24 halftime lead the Leathernecks settled down and showed their fans that they might expect big things this year. They are the pre-season favorites in the Senior Invitational League and are a good bet to walk off with everything this year, although it's still too early to tell. As defending champions of the league, they are the team to beat and Maj. Norfolk is confident that his 1957-58 squad is fully as strong as the squad of last season.

The current crop of Marine cager is bigger, the Major says, and they will be stronger defensively than their predecessors.

MARINES WIN SECOND GAME

Results came almost too late for press time but it was learned that the Leathernecks of Hawaii downed Hickam AFB by the lopsided score of 108-69, Wednesday night here at Kaneohe.

With eleven minutes left in the first half the Marines finally went ahead 16-15 and were never behind again. Big 6 foot 3 inch Lt. Jere Lawrence was high point producer, ending up with 20 points. This is the best single game output for a Marine in the season that just got underway early this week.

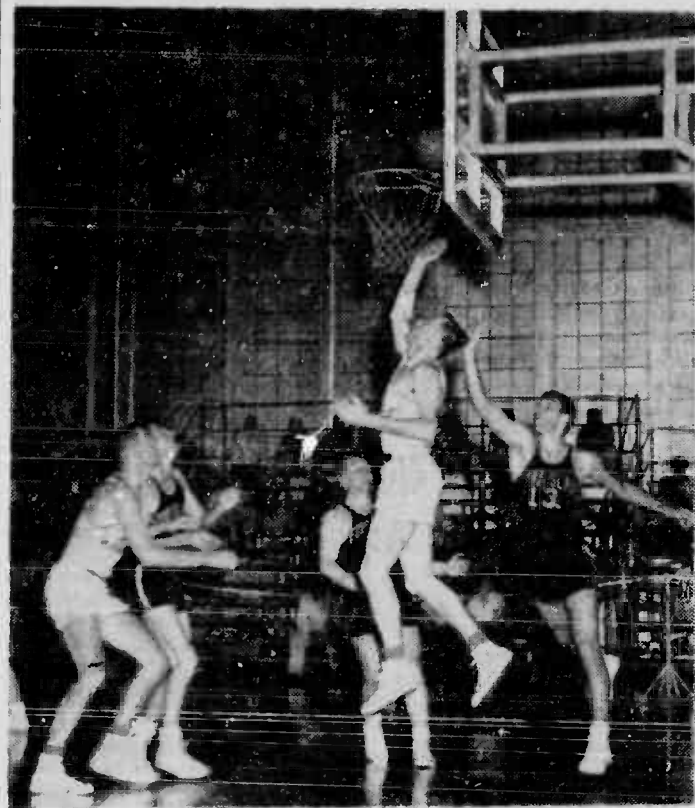

Using, very effectively, the fast break as their main weapon, the "Necks" surged to a 54-26 halftime lead and from that point the reserves took over.

3 MARINES GET HULA BOWL BID

Three members of the Hawaii Marines grid squad, end Lt. Dick Gagliardi, Tackle Cpl. Manny Congedo and halfback Pvt. Tom Gates have been reported to have received invitations to participate in the 12th annual Hula Bowl Game, Jan. 5, in Honolulu Stadium.

Staged for the benefit of Hawaiian Charities, the annual grid classic attracts some of the top pro's, collegians, and University-Armed Forces Conference stars of the year.

Other U-AF standouts to receive invitations include Navy's Weldon Holley, Herman Murray and Frank Guerrero, and Art Tam-buri and Ronald Han of the conference champion Rams.

James Weiman cut around Ford Island NAS defender Duane Feuerhelm (No. 13) and came up with a beautiful twisting backhand layup which spun into the hoop for two points as the Hawaii Marines won their Hawaiian Senior Invitational League opener 86-48, here Monday night. Nisbet, Gagliardi, Glover, Collins And Gates Named to U-AF All Stars Five members of the 1957 Hawaii Marines, runners-up in the recently completed University-Armed Forces Football league, were selected to the first team of the Star-Bulletin U-AF Conference All Stars this week. The downtown daily also listed four Leathernecks on their Conference All Stars' second squad and one on the third.

Halfback Pvt. Tom Gates, quarterback Lt. "Pinky" Nisbet, end Lt. Dick Gagliardi, tackle Sgt. Johnny Glover and guard Lt. Mike Collins were selected to the first team for their outstanding play during the 193 grid campaign while tackle Cpl. Manny "Mouse" Congedo, Hawaii Marine football captain Lt. Vince Jazwinski (center), and Lts. Jim Milne and Fred Franco (both backfield men) gained second team laurels.

The lone Hawaii Marine entry on the third team was end Lt. Roger Haire.

The Conference champion Rams dominated the balloting for the first team, placing six men on the All Star roster, four linemen and a pair of backfield men.

The U-AF All Conference squad was selected by coaches representing the Navy, Marines and Rams. University of Hawaii head mentor, Hans Vasconcellos, did not participate in the balloting.

HAWAII SLATED TO HOST ALL MARINE BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT: STARTS MAR. 11

The 1957-58 All Marine Basketball Championships will be held here in Hawaii beginning March 11. The tourney will attract three Leatherneck cage squads, one representing the Pacific Area, and one each from the West and East Coasts.

Skeet Season Gets Underway Here; New Shooters Are Urgently Needed

WANTED—SKEET SHOOTERS. The 1957 K-Bay Skeet Team which swept the Territorial and National 5-Man team championships has only one veteran returning. MSgt. Hugh D. Gassaway, and new shooters are needed to replace such skeet stalwarts as Capt. Leonard Hitchcox, Lts. Bill Franklin and Charles Hancock, and TSgt. Raymond Garrison, who have departed for other duty stations.

Shooting sessions which will eventually determine who will make the team are currently being held at the Station Skeet Range, Wednesday and Sunday afternoons. The mid-week sessions commence at 3 o'clock and the Sunday practices get underway at one. All interested personnel, with or without experience, are urged to attend these shooting sessions.

This year's team will be made up of five regulars and three alternates.

Team members will be selected on the following basis: after several weeks of shooting, the eight top shooters will be chosen to compose the K-Bay team. However, in weeks following the initial selection, any new man who maintains an average higher than that of the lowest average on the team, will replace the older member.

By using this basis of selection, any shooter has an equal chance of making the team.

Shotguns may be checked out at both Brigade and Station Special

Meritorious Mast Lauds SSgt. Weiss

SSgt. Harold A. Weiss, NCOIC, Station Special Services Athletic Division, was commended Tuesday at a meritorious mast conducted by Col. Jack R. Cram, CO, MCAS, for "the outstanding manner" in which he has accomplished his duties.

Sgt. Weiss was also cited for his work in connection with the placing of bleachers during the recent rodeo.

His duties include maintenance of all athletic fields and facilities for the Brigade-Station Sports Program (intramural) as well as the Hawaii Marine program. The smooth administration of the games (i.e. scoreboard, timing, announcing, etc.) plus the many odd jobs he is called upon to do in support of the general Special Services program "have been performed with competency, dependability and dispatch," the citation read.

SSgt. Weiss

Services (free of charge) and costs at the range amount to $1.35 per round, the dollar for one round of shooting which includes 25 shells and the same number of birds, and the remainder used as payment to the personnel operating the traps.

It has been reported that a majority of personnel aboard the Station are under the impression that use of the Range is limited only to team members and a certain privileged few. This notion is entirely false. The K-Bay Skeet Range is a Special Services function and all personnel are eligible to use it during its regular hours of operation.

For further information concerning the team and practice sessions, contact Lt. Kirby Walker at 72290 during working hours.

Windward Marine Sports Editor Leaves Suddenly

The WINDWARD MARINE lost the services of its top-notch sports editor this week with his transfer to the Mainland. Pfc. Dan V. Stupka, who has held the post for the past seven months, was called home due to an emergency in his family. Since he is due for discharge in March, he will not return.

Pfc. Bill Goins, reporter for this paper, will pinch-hit in the capacity of sports editor until the return from leave of Pfc. Charles R. Kane who will assume the post in early January.

The WINDWARD MARINE regrets losing a man of such exceptional ability. Pfc. Stupka came to the Station newspaper after playing on last year's U-AF champion Hawaii Marine basketball squad. A graduate of Northern Michigan College, he can leave with the knowledge of having done an outstanding job.

14th ND Pistol Meet

The 14th Naval District Monthly Pistol tournament will be held Saturday, Dec. 14, at the Hawaii National Guard Range, Diamond Head Crater.

San Diego and Bolling AFB To Vie in Shrimp Bowl Tilt

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—The San Diego Marines, who opened their 1957 football season with a 78-0 win over Malmstrom Air Force Base in the Oyster Bowl at South Bend, Wash., finished '57 play in another "Bowl" game: The undefeated Devildogs, who swept to an all-victorious ten-game record on the strength of a rugged defense, consistent ground attack and never-say-die spirit, will invade the Shrimp Bowl at Galveston, Texas, Dec. 15, at 2:30 p.m., to challenge the grid-iron might of the Bolling Air Force Base "Generals," defending National Service Champions.

The Shrimp Bowl clash promises to be an explosive battle heard 'round the nation as these two powerful grid juggernauts seek acclaim as the year's top service football team in America.

The Bolling Air Force Base eleven, East Coast pigskin titans, will bring to the Shrimp Bowl an experienced, glittering array of All-Americans and professional stars.

The San Diego Marines, representing San Diego and the West Coast, will try to offset Bolling's star-studded aggregation with a squad that boasts no "big names," but is three-deep in players who have consistently dug deep to find an extra bit of spark that enabled the team to explode in a united, determined effort culminating in victory.

They've employed the same system on the gridiron that is used by Marine combat units—each man in a squad is trained and qualified to step into the shoes of the squad leader in an emergency.

Going into their second Shrimp Bowl appearance, the Bolling AFB Generals will probably be a heavy favorite on the strength of their 29-14 win over Fort Hood in the Bowl last year and nine straight victories this season with only one regularly scheduled game remaining.

The Generals defeated Fort Knox 46-0, Camp Lejeune 26-0, Fort Eustis 28-7, Fort Belvoir 21-12, Shaw AFB 28-0, Fort Still 28-14, Little Creek Navy 40-7, Fort Carson 27-0 and the Quantico Marines 38-6. They played Elgin AFB Nov. 30 to wrap up their regular schedule.

Bolstering Bolling's bid for another National Service Championship will be such grid luminaries as Ralph Guglielmi, ex-Notre Dame All-American and Washington Redskins star, Pete Neft of Pittsburgh U. and the Pittsburgh Steelers; Joe Heap, former Notre Dame ace; Veryl Switzer, second team All-American from Kansas State College and Green Bay Packers star for two years.

Also looming large in Bolling's bid for a repeat win in the Shrimp Bowl will be ends Bob McQuaide of Pittsburgh U. and Dan Shannon of Notre Dame, tackles Dale Meinert of Oklahoma A&M and the Canadian professional Edmonton Eskimos and Bob Skoronski of Indiana U. and the Green Bay Packers. They are backed by guards Tony Sardisco of Tulane and the Washington Redskins and Dick Gatz of Kansas U. and Pittsburgh U.

Another star for Bolling is Jim Kopenhaver at the center slot. He was one of the finest linebackers ever turned out by the University of Pennsylvania during his collegiate football days.

The underdog San Diego Marines will enter the Bowl clash holding regular season triumphs over Malmstrom AFB, 78-0; Hamilton AFB, 27-20; Fort Bliss, 14-7; Fresno State College, 53-0; San Diego State College, 20-7; San Diego University, 41-0; Travis AFB, 72-0; California State Polytechnic College, 27-14; and two wins over the Hawaii Marines by 20-13 and 32-7 scores.

Though boasting no star who can stand alone, the Marines will offer a heavy, fast, and aggressive line and a hard-running backfield sparked by the line plunging of full-back Jim Pyles, former San Diego State College griddy, and half-back Al Hall, former Chicago high school footballer who hits the line or skirts the ends with equal success.

Hall is the team's leading scorer and ground gainer with 14 touchdowns for 84 points and 898 yards for 108 carries this season.

Local Keglers Lose to Schofield But Keep Tie for 6th in Isle Loop

The K-Bay Bowling Team lost to Schofield 2-1 last Friday night at the Hickam lanes to maintain its tie for sixth place in the 18-team Armed Forces Classic League as the circuit completed 16 weeks of competition. With eight more weeks remaining, TSgt. Von Michael's squad is deadlocked with Naval Base for the sixth place slot.

Ft. Shafter holds a very dominant lead at the present time and threatens to make a runaway of the league. The Army representatives sport a record of 37½-10½, five and one-half games in front of Hickam No. 1 and Wheeler AFB, who are knotted for the runner-up position.

The one bright spot in the K-Bay bowling picture last Friday was team captain Von Michael's 238 performance in the second game of the match which sparked his team to their only game victory of the night and also established for the personable sergeant the high individual game for the league that night.

Schofield keggers, however, somewhat dulled the glitter of Michael's performance by setting the high team game standard for the league that same evening. The 25th Division's 5-man team recorded a 982 to gain the distinction.

Tonight, the K-Bay Marines meet Barber's Pt. No. 1 at the Wheeler AFB lanes. The first game is slated to begin at 6:30.

The standings of the first 10 teams in the league are as follows:

TEAM	W	L
1. Ft. Shafter	37½	10½
2. Hickam No. 1	32	16
3. Wheeler AFB	32	16
4. Schofield	31	17
5. Tripler	30	18
6. K-Bay Marines	28	20
7. Naval Base	28	20
8. CincPacFlt	27	21
9. Hickam No. 2	25½	22½
10. NavComSta	25	23

Ed. Note: Where ties exist, positions are determined by total pin-fall.

PHYMES the TIMES

Theater Schedule

By PFC. BILL GOINS

Two shows daily—6:05 p.m. and 8:20 p.m. at both Main Theater and 4th Marines. Movies at 4th Marines Theater are one day later than scheduled below. Matinees on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays at the Main Theater at 1 p.m. only.

TONIGHT

GUN THE MAN DOWN—Another two fisted, rip roarin, cut-throat yarn concerning good guys, bad guys, good girls, bad girls, good horses and bad ones in the wild, wooley, untamed, lawless old west. Features James Arness and Aggie Dickinson. It's horrible but I like it because everybody gets shot up.

SATURDAY MATINEE

CINDERELLA—Dear Mom, here's a chance to get the kids out of your hair. Walt Disney is the producer of this fairy tale; so let's you mothers and I get our heads together and figure this out. It runs for 75 minutes and starting time is 1 p.m. so you can pick junior up around 2:15. If there is a news feature or cartoon you better add 15 more minutes.

SATURDAY

BAMBI—Just checked my calendar to make sure this isn't Mother's Day. To my surprise ole man time says today is Pearl Harbor day and the connection between this and the movies has me stumped. Oh well, I'm not paid to think, just write.

SUNDAY MATINEE

FURY AT SHOWDOWN—Cowboy has cowgirl trouble on top of trouble with other cowboys in a small cowtown. To put it bluntly, it smells worse than a herd of cattle. John Derek and Carolyn Craig ride off into the sunset together at the finish and if our luck holds they'll keep riding.

SUNDAY

CURSE OF FRANKENSTEIN—Don't confuse this "Frankie" with the one that sings. True they somewhat resemble each other but the one in this picture has a much deeper voice.

MONDAY

THE BIG CAPER—This should help you if you plan to become a criminal. Why be an amateur when after seeing "The Capers" you can become a professional. Arson, how to strangle a person, bank robberies and other activities can be learned for only a dime. Stars Rory Calhoun, Mary Costa and James Gregory. Poor.

TUESDAY

CHICAGO CONFIDENTIAL—It's a story involving all types of vice, including sex. Pretty drawn out affair though. Runs for two hours and a half. Beverly Garland and Brian Keith star. Running time includes the cartoon. It's average.

WEDNESDAY

SHARKFIGHTERS—Too many Navy pilots were being eaten by sharks when they had to ditch during WW-2 so a long distance telephone call to Hollywood brought Victor Mature to the rescue. This is a pretty good account of the Navy's shark repellent experiments off Cuba's coast in 1942. It's good, stars Karen Steele.

THURSDAY

3:10 TO YUMA—They tried, and succeeded, to insert the "High Noon" effect into this western. Plot deals mostly with Van Heflin having the unpleasant chore of taking tough Glenn Ford to the Yuma jail. Felicia Farr and Lora Dana add the feminine touch. This is a good one, think you will enjoy it. Rate it very good.
