Change of Command Ceremony Tomorrow

HISTORICAL
HIST REFERENCE SEC

A change of command ceremony will be held on the flight line at K-Bay May 31, at 4:30 p.m., when Lieutenant General Victor H. Krulak will be relieved by Lieutenant General Henry W. Buse Jr., as Commanding General, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific.

Following the change of command ceremonies, a cocktail buffet reception will be held to greet General and Mrs. Buse and to bid Aloha to General and Mrs.

Philadelphia, he was assigned the usual tours for a junior officer in the Marine Corps of the 1930's. He served on sea duty aboard the USS Arizona, a tour at the Naval Academy, then duty with the 6th Marines in San Diego.

During 1937 the general went to China with the 4th Marines and stayed three years. He returned to Quantico, Va., in 1940 to complete the Basic Junior Officers Course, then was assigned to the 1st Marine Brigade.

During World War II he volunteered for parachute training and upon completion was ordered to the Pacific as commander of the 2nd Parachute Battalion. He went into action at Vella Lavella with the 2nd New Zealand Brigade.

The year 1943 was the turning point of the general's career. As a lieutenant colonel he led his General Krulak will retire from the Marine Corps during ceremonies in San Diego, Saturday, June 1, ending more than 34 years service to the Corps.

Parking for the general public during the change of command will be between Hangars 101 and 102. Road signs and sentries will direct traffic to the parking area.

Saturday will mark the end of one of the most colorful careers in the Marine Corps — a career that has spanned 34 years and numerous continents — when Lieutenant General Victor H. Krulak, known by many friends as the "Brute," retires during ceremonies at Camp Smith.

Born in Denver, Colo., Jan. 7, 1913, the general decided after a trip to the coast that the Navy was for him and in 1930 secured an appointment to the Naval Academy where he earned his nickname and decided that he wanted to be a Marine.

General Krulak received a special waiver to join the Corps even though he was a little over an inch too short according to regulations.

battalion in a week-long diversionary raid to cover the Bougainville invasion. His personal heroism and leadership abilities earned him a Navy Cross and marked him as a Marine who was going places.

With the 6th Marine Division on Okinawa and later at the Japanese surrender in China, Gen. Krulak earned the Legion of Merit and the Bronze Star, both with Combat "V".

In the peaceful interval between World War II and Korea, he served as assistant director of the Senior School at Quantico, Va., and later as commander of the 5th Marines.

He was Assistant Chief of Staff for Operations and Training with FMFPac when the Korean conflict erupted and during that action he earned his second Legion of Merit and the Air Medal as Chief of Staff for the 1st Marine Division.

From 1951 to 1955 he was secretary to the general staff at Headquarters Marine Corps then rejoined FMFPac as chief of staff.

In 1956, now 43 years old, he became the youngest general in the history of the Marine Corps.

His first flag assignment was as assistant commander of the 3rd Marine Division on Okinawa. Then he moved back to Quantico as director of the Marine Corps Education Center.

He picked up his second star in 1959 and moved to the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, as commanding general.

LtCol. Hansford Takes Control of MABS-24

During squadron ceremonies Tuesday, Lieutenant Colonel John R. Hansford took command of Marine Air Base Squadron-24 from acting commanding officer Captain Patrick M. Prout. Prout is now executive officer.

"I like the attitude of the people here," remarked Colonel Hansford, who recently came to Hawaii after serving in DaNang, Vietnam. "We are of course having growing pains right now, but it looks like we are really headed in the right direction."

Marine Air Base Squadron-24 has joined 300 people in the last three weeks. Another 100 are due in soon, making MABS-24 the largest squadron in Marine Air Group-24.

Memorial Day Message from The President

For a century now, Americans have set aside one special day to remember those who have given their lives in the Nation's defense. The battlefields on which they all span the long generations of our history, from the slopes of Mount Hill to the A Shau Valley. The cost of their sacrifice is beyond reckoning. But the result of their sacrifice, and of the service of all their comrades-in-arms, is beyond price: We are a nation; we are united; we are free.

On Memorial Day 1968, we earn for an end to war, for a time when the guns will be silenced forever and men can live as they wish.

That peace, when it comes, will be the lasting memorial of all who have fought to give it birth, and whose service and sacrifice we honor today.

PHANTOMS ARRIVE — One of the first six F4J Phantoms assigned to VMF-212 arrives at Naval Air Station, Barber's Point, where the squadron is currently operating until runway repair is completed at K-Bay.

VMF-212 Receives First Phantoms at Barber's Pt

Marine Fighter Squadron 212 accepted delivery of the first six of its Phantom (F4J) super-sonic jet fighters at the Barber's Point Naval Air Station shortly after noon Saturday, May 25.

The planes were flown to Hawaii from the Marine Corps Air Station at Santa Ana, Calif. More of the aircraft will be arriving during the next two months until the squadron has its full complement of Phantoms.

Normally, the jets will be based here where the squadron is a unit of Marine Air Group-1. First Marine Brigade, however, the runway's are currently under repair so the aircraft will be housed at Barber's Point until the work is completed.

The Phantoms replace the Crusader (F8) jets that squadron pilots had been flying since July, 1963.

Used by the Navy and Air Force as well as the Marine Corps, the F4J Phantom is considered the free world's fastest fighter aircraft. It is a two-seat, supersonic, long range, all-weather fighter built by McDonnell-Douglas Corp.

Suitable for use on either land or aboard an aircraft carrier, it is designed for intermediate or long range attack missions and is powered by twin J79-GE-10 jet engines with afterburner.

Nearly 60-feet long and 40-feet from wing tip to wing tip, it can carry a wide assortment of weapons including air-to-air and air-to-ground missiles, rockets and bombs. It is equipped with a 20mm gun pod also, giving it gunnery capabilities.

The Phantom has a two-man crew, a pilot and a radar intercept officer.

Catherine Lambert has been announced as the 8th Annual K-Bay Water Carnival queen contestant for Headquarters and Services Company.

Cathy is an 18-year-old University of Hawaii student who holds the varied interests of horses, piano, ballet, and some gymnastics. At five feet, four inches, Cathy has brown hair, hazel eyes, and 36-24-36 statistics.

Linda Knippschild has been selected to represent 1st Radio Battalion in the 8th Annual K-Bay Water Carnival queen. A K-Bay Exchange employee, Linda stands a diminutive four feet, 11 inches and tips the scale at under 100 pounds. Interested in cooking and reading, Linda has black hair and dark brown eyes.

Chef de Cuisine

By La Trelle

As you may already know, the Portuguese were the first Europeans to migrate to Hawaii. These people, therefore, have greatly influenced Hawaiian cuisine.

Today I'm introducing you to a meal in one dish — more commonly called Portuguese Beans.

Portuguese Beans

1 pound dried pinto beans
1 small ham shank
water
4 slices bacon, cut in small pieces
1 large onion, chopped
1 tsp. salt
½ tsp. pepper
1 tsp. ground all spice
1 tsp. powdered cumin
Wash beans, then place in a large kettle along with the ham shank. Pour in enough water to cover. Bring to boil, cover pan tightly and simmer over very low heat for three to three-and-a-half hours, or until beans are tender. Gently stir occasionally and add more water if necessary. While beans are cooking, fry bacon until crisp, then remove from pan. Pour off half the bacon drippings and saute onion until clear in remaining fat.

When beans are tender, remove ham shank and stir in bacon, sauteed onion, salt, pepper, all spice and cumin. Let stand 10 minutes before serving so flavors will blend. Add bit size pieces of ham cut from the shank. Serves eight.

This week's prize winning dessert is strictly Hawaiian though cosmopolitan in method of preparation and is called Aloha Squares.

Aloha Squares

½ cup granulated sugar
2 Tbsp. cornstarch
2 cups crushed pineapple (do not drain)

2 Tbsp. lemon juice
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 cups brown sugar
2 tsp. salt
5 cups rolled oats
2 cups shortening

Cook sugar, cornstarch, and crushed pineapple until clear. Add lemon juice and cool. Mix flour, brown sugar, salt, and rolled oats. Cut in shortening to make a crumbly mass. Spread with cooled pineapple mixture. Sprinkle remaining flour mixture over top, patting smooth. Bake 375 degrees until brown, approximately 15 minutes. When cool, cut each pan into 16 squares. For tea cakes cut into 24 servings per pan.

This latter recipe is another crowd pleaser and can be taken to any function with assurance that the platter you bring home will be empty.

Windy's chef is looking high and low for new recipes that will please you. Next week we'll turn to salads. The weather is warming and nothing is more appreciated on a warm day than a cool, refreshing salad. Until then, au revoir and always bon appetit.

"The Magic Animal" by Philip Wylie is the Choice-of-the-Month of June for the Station Library.

Yes, Philip Wylie is at it again. If his attack on "Mom" made you feel superior, forget it, he has just added YOU to the list.

We, as human animals, are now "relatively the most ignorant examples of our species ever to exist."

Thus does Philip Wylie introduce his updated view of mankind... twenty-five years after his outraged attack on "Moms" in "Generation of Vipers" stunned the country. "What the world needs, I'm sure, is a new sort of iconoclast," he says at the beginning of the Magic Animal.

Biology has proven that men are not equal, identical, similar, or anything of the sort, from the instant of conception.

Sociology and its ersatz outlands is another species province (of Science). Young Americans are nuts. The medium is the message, I'm informed. Orwell could not have dreamed up neater perversion.

But the Magic Animal is not iconoclasm for its own sake. It is the total expression of the nature philosophy of a brilliant author and lay scientist who believes that man can truly become a magic animal if he makes use of his unique gift... imagination.

CAREER NOTES

By GySgt. Bill Gatewood

With the recent large influx of personnel I am sure there are quite a few Marines now aboard station who are not familiar with our career advisory program, and particularly, the various unit career advisory personnel.

If you are attached to VMF-212, SSgt. Rhew stands ready, willing and able to answer your questions. MABS-24 can always call on Sgt. Betlewicz. H&MS-24 Marines can drop in and chat with SSgt. Bruzenek. MACS-2 chargers have SSgt. Richardson and CWO Kiselicka to solve their problems. H&S Co., 1st Marine Brigade, will be represented by SSgt. Murphy as soon as he finishes Career Advisory School.

These Marines are your various unit representatives. For those of you who have questions or problems unanswerable at the unit level, you can always rely on your MAG-24 office. This billet, recently established, is being nailed down by 1stLt. Colleton with the able assistance of GySgt. Frank Dunn. They are located in Bldg. 301. And, finally, my office located in Bldg. 221 is always open and available to you.

All of us invite all of you to drop by any time. We guarantee you WON'T get a shipping over lecture. We will do our utmost to assist you in any way.

Recently I have noticed too many young Marines who have a very undesirable combination of problems, these are: lack of high school, low area aptitude test scores, no record of any correspondence courses completed, and no formal Marine Corps schooling to their credit. For those of you in this category I can almost guarantee that you will find an extremely difficult road to travel. Why leave the Marine Corps with two strikes against you before the ball game even begins.

Change of Command...

Legion of Merit, awarded by Gen. Maxwell Taylor, for his services as the special assistant for counter insurgency activities to the Joint Chiefs of Staff, from 1962 to 1964.

Following that tour, he was promoted to his present rank and assigned as the Commanding General, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific.

General Krulak's strongest virtues, a Life magazine article once said, are self-assurance and an ability to work harder than almost anyone. He has been known as an officer who was extremely demanding of his senior staff officers yet never forgot a staff member's birthday.

Lieutenant General Henry W. Buse Jr., a Marine officer for the past 34 years, will assume command of all Marines in the Pacific area tomorrow during change of command ceremonies at K-Bay.

General Buse, coming to FMF, Pacific, headquarters from duties as Chief of Staff, Headquarters Marine Corps, was born in April, 1912, at Ridley Park, Pa.

He entered the U. S. Naval Academy in 1930 and was commissioned a second lieutenant upon graduation, May 31, 1934. Upon completion of Basic School, then at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, in April 1935, the general served aboard the USS Oklahoma for a year's duty at sea.

In June 1936, he was ordered to Quantico, Va., for duty with the 1st Marine Brigade. During March 1937, he was transferred to the Marine Barracks, Pearl Harbor, where he was promoted to first lieutenant the following July.

From September 1939, to February 1940, 1st Lt. Buse was a student at the Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga. He then joined the 5th Marines, 1st Marine Brigade, at Quantico, and served as a company officer and later as a company commander, receiving his promotion to captain in July 1940.

That September he embarked with the Brigade for Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. With the redesignation of the brigade as the 1st Marine Division in March, 1941, he was made commander of the division's 1st Scout Company and continued to command the company at Quantico and New River, later Camp Lejeune, N.C. He was serving in this capacity when World War II broke out. In April 1942, he was assigned to the 1st Tank Battalion, 1st Marine Division, as battalion executive officer. He was promoted to major in May 1942.

During the war he was assigned to the Pacific area, serving in Wellington, New Zealand with the 1st Marine Division; participating in the Guadalcanal landing, capture and defense; and Cape Gloucester.

He earned the Bronze Star Medal with Combat "V" for services on Guadalcanal, and the Silver Star Medal for action at Cape Gloucester.

General Buse returned to the States in July 1944, and served at Headquarters Marine Corps as executive officer, G-3 Section. His next tour was with Troop Training Unit, Amphibious Training Command, and served as Regimental Combat Team Instructor in Japan in connection with training 8th Army Troops.

He returned to Pearl Harbor in February 1947, and served as Assistant Chief of Staff, G-4(Supply), FMF, Pacific, for two years. He then completed the Armed Forces Staff College at Norfolk, Va., and was ordered to Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, in July 1949. There he commanded the 22nd Marines (Reinforced), until September 1940, when he became commanding officer of the Schools Troops. He was promoted to lieutenant colonel in April 1943, and to colonel in October 1949.

His next assignments were as commanding officer, Special Training Regiment, Quantico, and with the 6th Marines, 2nd Marine Division, Camp Lejeune, before entering the Korean conflict as the Chief of Staff, 1st Marine Division in September 1952. For outstanding service in this capacity he was awarded the Legion of Merit with Combat "V".

Following his return from Korea, General Buse served as Headquarters Marine Corps; Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island; FMF, Pacific, headquarters at Pearl Harbor, as chief of staff; and later as chief of staff, Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, in Norfolk. While serving in Norfolk he was promoted to brigadier general in August 1958.

He next began a three-year assignment as Marine Corps Liaison Officer to the Vice Chief of Naval Operations. From September, 1961, to May, 1962, he served as the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-3, at Headquarters Marine Corps.

General Buse commanded the 3rd Marine Division on Okinawa from June 1962 until May 1963. He was promoted to major general in July 1962. Reporting back to Headquarters Marine Corps he was assigned duties in the Office of the Commandant. On July 15, 1963, he was named Deputy Chief of Staff, Plans and Programs. Following the upgrading of that post by President Johnson, he was promoted to his present rank Dec. 29, 1964. For services in this billet he was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal. General Buse was assigned duties as Chief of Staff, Headquarters Marine Corps July 1, 1967.

Safety First

The booklet, "Attitudes and Platitudes" showed the summing up of 1967 as follows:

52,200 deaths — first substantial decrease in ten years;
4,200,000 injuries — 200,000 less than 1966;
265,500 pedestrian casualties — 20,000 less than 1966;

Almost one third of the drivers involved in fatal accidents were under 25 years of age;

25 per cent of the deaths and 28 per cent of the injuries occurred between 4 and 8 p.m.;

More than 800,000 persons were killed or injured on Saturdays; and

More than 32 per cent of the killed and more than 31 per cent of the injured were between 20 and 34 years of age.

COMMENDED — President Lyndon B. Johnson attaches the Presidential Unit Citation Streamer to the colors of the 26th Marine Regiment in ceremonies May 23 at the White House. Holding the unit's colors is Sergeant Major A. W. Smith, sergeant major of the 1st Battalion, 9th Marines, who remained as top enlisted man the longest period of time at Khe Sanh. Colonel David E. Lownds, commanding officer of the 26th Marines during the defense of Khe Sanh, looks on.

Khe Sanh Defenders Earn Unit Citation

The Twenty-Sixth Marine Regiment and its reinforcing units, which held the Khe Sanh combat complex in Vietnam against overwhelming odds during the seven-week siege by North Vietnamese forces, has been awarded the Presidential Unit Citation.

President Johnson conferred the citation today at White House ceremonies.

Accepting the award was Col. David E. Lownds, who earned the Navy Cross for his leadership of the regiment during the action.

Tharin Named For Third Star, Duty at HQMC

The White House announced yesterday the nomination of Major General Frank C. Tharin for promotion to lieutenant general and assignment to Headquarters Marine Corps as Deputy Chief of Staff for Plans and Programs.

General Tharin, one of the defenders of Wake Island at the outbreak of World War II, has served as Deputy Commander, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, at Camp Smith, since February, 1967.

No date has been set for the general's departure for Washington, where he will replace Lieutenant General Ralph K. Rottet. General Rottet's new assignment and General Tharin's replacement have not been announced.

A veteran of 34 years Marine Corps service, General Tharin received the Silver Star, Distinguished Flying Cross, two Air Medals and the Purple Heart for his services during the bitter fighting at Wake Island in 1941.

Taken prisoner in December 1941, he spent nearly four years in prison camps in China, Korea and Japan before being liberated in 1945.

Before taking over as deputy commander of all Marines in the Pacific area in 1967, he was Commanding General, Marine Corps Air Bases, Western Area and Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, Calif.

Accompanying the colonel was Sergeant Major A. W. Smith, the senior enlisted Marine from the Khe Sanh combat base. Smith, the sergeant major of 1st Battalion, 9th Marines, which reinforced the 26th Marines, earned the Bronze Star for his role at Khe Sanh.

The regiment's mission was to hold the combat complex, consisting of the combat base and surrounding hilltop positions which blocked enemy routes into the northern provinces of South Vietnam.

Opposing the regiment were two North Vietnamese Army divisions, reinforced with artillery, tank, anti-aircraft artillery and rocket units.

While occupying the position from Jan. 20 to April 1, the Marines daily were subjected to hundreds of rounds of artillery and rocket fire. On Feb. 23 more than 1,300 artillery and rocket rounds struck the combat base.

The bombardments were followed by repeated ground attacks on the Khe Sanh positions.

In citing the reinforced regiment, the president stated that "By their gallant fighting spirit and their countless individual acts of heroism, the men of the Twenty-Sixth Marines (Reinforced) established a record of illustrious courage and determination in keeping with the highest traditions of the Marine Corps and the United States Naval Service."

Memo from Commanding Officer

In a memorandum to all personnel stationed here, Col. F. C. Opeka, Station commanding officer said:

"I would like to express to each and everyone of you my sincerest thanks and my deepest gratitude for your past, and current performance, which I have personally considered to be always outstanding, and which has proved to be the case as evidenced by your fine showing during the recent Inspector General's visit. Each of you, in doing his job, can feel justifiably proud in having done it well. Of the inspectors to whom I spoke personally, not one had anything but praise for the attitude, the spirit, and the

Kaneohe Flag Flies Defiantly Over Hill 881

The bright new flag that flies defiantly over Hill 881 South, a Marine-held bastion near Vietnam's demilitarized zone, is a gift from Hawaii's Beta Sigma Phi Sorority of the Kaneohe area.

The women's group bought the flag to show their "appreciation and support of our American fighting men in Vietnam." Marine Gunnery Sergeant Bob Green, Headquarters, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, was asked to deliver the flag for them.

"I was headed out that way anyway," Green, who as FMFPac Radio-Television Chief makes periodic trips to Vietnam, said. "I was more than glad to take the flag to the guys on the hill."

It took some doing and Green spent several days on Hill 881 South during his month-long stay in Vietnam.

"That flag is like a shot in the arm or a letter from home," commented Captain Harrison L. Haley, Walnut Creek, Calif., Commanding Officer of "Delta" Company, 1st Battalion, 1st Marines, as the flag was hoisted, April 19, on a make-shift pole to flap gallantly over the Marine stronghold.

The idea of a new flag for Hill 881 was born several months ago when Phyllis Hurst, Kaneohe, treasurer of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Chapter 3016, heard a local news cast about the tattered flag then flying.

"We feel it is right and proper for the American flag to fly over that hill and we're proud of the Marines who will keep it there. This flag is our way of saying thanks," said Mrs. Virginia Blackshaw, Kaneohe, president of the sorority, as she entrusted GySgt. Green with the flag.

A message from the sorority to the embattled Marines was delivered by GySgt. Green along with the flag. The message read "To the Marines on Hill 881 South: May we wish you the best of everything and hope with all our hearts that you soon return home, leaving the world a safer place for all of us."

Corporal Glenn T. Griffin, Warwick, New York, summed up the feelings of "Delta" Company when he said: "Let's see them come now. They'll never tear that flag down."

motivation that each of you displayed. The many "NOTEWORTHIES" which we received was ample evidence, in anyone's view, that the mission of providing a service to all is being accomplished to the highest degree, with fewer people, and less dollars than have ever before been available. There is no doubt in my mind that that same spirit and motivation will continue to provide SERVICE which is so necessary to the readiness of our tenant fleet units. I don't expect the tasks to become any easier and we may expect, perhaps, a greater work load. I am confident that we are more than equal to the problems and tasks that lie ahead."

AT THE Movies

TODAY: "Bikini Paradise"
Kieron Moore, Janette Scott
(Comedy)

Rated as a good, adult comedy, the setting for this movie is Waikiki, or Miami, or French Riviera.

FRIDAY: "The Chase"
Jane Fonda, Marlon Brando
(Adventure-Drama)

The Windy staff rates this as a very good flick. With Jane, what else?

SATURDAY: "P. J."
George Peppard, Raymond Burr
(Suspense-Drama)

Who is P.J.? What connection does he have with the underground? When does his enlistment expire? (Rated as very good, for adult and youth.)

SUNDAY: "Psychopath"
Alexander Knox, Patrick Wymark
(Crime-Drama)

All about a nut, but rated as very good.

MONDAY: "Rings Around the World"
(Documentary)

Don Ameche introduces top flight talent from a number of international circuses, presenting act after act of amazing spectacle. (Really)

TUESDAY: "Red Planet Mars"
Andrea King, Peter Graves
(Adventure)

All about space travelers who discover that Mars is a red planet - we guess.

WEDNESDAY: "The Fat Spy"

GREATER MENACES THAN WAR...

...exist every moment of our lives.

WAR — is spectacular and commands attention — at one and the same time it can be cruel yet glorious. In our still primitive civilization (if one may be permitted the license of such description) it has to be faced when it concerns our survival.

MENACES — greater than war, and much more deadly surround us at every turn. The automobile since its use began after the turn of the century has occasioned more deaths and many more injuries than all of the wars in history. Think of it... 50,000 deaths and fifty times as many injuries per year. On a holiday weekend in the United States alone there are as many or more deaths on the highways than during some of the worst weeks of the Vietnam War, which is surely a tragic enough responsibility.

I tell you categorically that the overuse of refined and fancified products of our business complex, is fast debilitating our civilized community.

SMOKING AND LIQUORING — I dislike the word 'drinking' to describe inhaling of intoxicating beverages... and now the excessive use of 'exhilarants' added to an inadequate amount of physical chores is adding its toll of decrepitude among the young who should be whole and vibrant.

HEART and Cardio-vascular conditions plus cancers... alone are depleting our population in U. S. each year of a million of our citizens, many at a peak of performance age.

Everyone has a chance to be perfectly healthy. All the conditions exist. We just have to change A FEW OF OUR WAYS.

We teach the basic requirements... for Perfect HEALTH. You can earn it. Ask us to coach you.

Red Cross Volunteers Commended

Officers Open Mess May 23.

Sharing honors with Mrs. Blue were Mrs. Mort Brigadier, who has been chairman for training for the Hawaii State Chapter, in Honolulu and Mrs. Lester B. Barnes, chairman for school health rooms, Hawaii State Chapter and chairman of volunteers, Wheeler Air Force Base.

In addition to receiving the traditional leis, these outstanding volunteer Red Cross staff members received Mahalo Certificates, the highest award that can be presented by the local chapter in recognition for service.

The honorees, being wives of military men presently on orders back to the Mainland, will be departing shortly for new assignments and new areas for community service.

Replacing Mrs. Blue as Red Cross chairman of volunteers at K-Bay is Mrs. B. L. (Karen) Wamble, formerly serving as deputy volunteer chairman.

Law Prohibits Introduction of Drugs

In a message from the Commanding General, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, it was stated that on May 13, 1968, a U.S. sailor, charged with wrongful possession of marijuana, was sentenced by the Tokyo High Court to 18 months confinement at hard labor (unsuspended).

This court held that it considered the use of marijuana was deleterious to health, introduction into Japan was dangerous to society, and a breach of trust for a sailor to introduce marijuana into Japan in a military ship and through a U.S. Naval Base.

The message stated that "This reflects the increasingly stringent view taken by Japanese authorities of violation of Japanese law regarding illegal introduction of drugs and weapons into Japan and makes it clear that continued violation of Japanese Drugs and Weapons Laws will result in increasing severity of sentences and could have an adverse impact on Japanese — U. S. relations."

Bobby Scott To Appear At K-Bay Water Carnival

Bobby Scott, a former Marine who is now one of music's most versatile figures, will visit the K-Bay area June 15 and 16 to appear with television star Pat Morrow at the 8th Annual K-Bay Water Carnival.

Recognized as an accomplished arranger, composer, producer, and successful Columbia Records artist as well, Bobby has been involved in music since childhood. Bobby started playing piano for big name bands at the age of 12. A former member of the Gene Krupa Quartet, Scott performed on Krupa's "Jazz At The Philharmonic" tour in 1955.

Bobby's first vocal recording, "Chain Gang" was a near million seller in 1956. After a brief tour as a singer, Scott turned to composing and conducting. Among those who have used Scott's talents as an arranger are Bobby Darin, Harry Belafonte, Aretha Franklin, Marvin Gaye, Gloria Lynn, Arthur Prysock, Quincy Jones, Les Elgart, Timi Yuro, Esther Ofarim, Nana Mouskouri, Sarah Vaughan and Diannah Carroll.

Leading artists who have used Bobby Scott's songs include Johnny Mathis, Robert Goulet, Artha Franklin, Arthur Prysock, Herb Alpert, Peggy Lee and Tony Bennett.

A recent guest on the Johnny Carson, Steve Allen, John Gary, and New Yorkers television shows, Bobby made his debut for Columbia Records with "My Heart In My Hands" which was released earlier this year.

BEWARE! Charcoal Can Be Dangerous

To help insure that your cookout is an enjoyable one, rather than a sad one, the following items are brought to your attention:

Keep your fire small and let it burn down to gray coals before putting on the food for cooking. Avoid the use of kerosene, lighter fluid, or gasoline as an aid to starting the charcoal. But if you are foolish enough to use them, never add them after ignition has been started as a stimulant.

Watch your fire constantly, never leave it unattended and keep a supply of water (or the garden hose) nearby to use in the event an emergency requires you to put out the fire quickly.

Don't use a discarded rag from an old refrigerator for a placemat. Many of them have been painted and can cause poisoning of the food when placing in contact with heat.

A little-known but burning charcoal is the hard of and does cause carbon monoxide poisoning. NEVER use charcoal without providing adequate ventilation. Don't use charcoal in a confined space unless proper ventilation is provided.

Win Streak Halted At 8; Athletics Trip Twins 6-5

Three home-runs in any ball game is quite an accomplishment, especially when they are all made by one team. But, the power-clouts weren't enough to bring victory to the Twins as the Athletics squeezed by the Major Division leaders, 6-5, setting them back for their first loss after winning eight straight.

The three round-trippers by Tim Paul, Ted Payne and John Arthur, all of them coming with no one on base, moved the Twins into a 5-4 lead. Three walks and two hits later, the A's emerged on top. Paul's home-run blast was his third of the season, while the smacks by Payne and Arthur were their second. Both of Arthur's came last week in Little League play.

In other diamond action, the Senators broke into the winner's column for the first time in nine tries, smashing the Phillies, 26-13 in the highest scoring game in two years. A total of 27 hits highlighted the slugfest game, with Ricky Woods belting a four-bagger for the winners. Keith Murch powered one out for the losers.

Other Little League action saw the Yankees nip the Cardinals, 15-14 in play May 20. The Phillies dropped the Pirates, 11-4 the same day with a seven-run outburst in the seventh inning after both clubs were tied, 4-all. The Indians moved into sole possession of first place in the Minor Division with a 13-6 win over the Dodgers, May 22, followed by a Twins victory over the Braves, 11-6.

In play May 23, the Giants topped their second straight win,

Lock, PMRF, Cops Tennis Singles Title

T. D. Lock, PMRF, emerged victorious in the Intramural Singles Tennis Tournament, stopping R. Pope, 1st ANGLICO, 5, 6-2, in the single elimination play which began May 6.

Lock's victory gave PMRF the Tennis Singles Championship with 25 points, followed closely by 1st ANGLICO with 27. 1st Radio Battalion and MACS-2 tied for third place honors with eight points while 1st Marine Brigade followed fourth with four points. Following the singles tournament, an Intramural Tennis Doubles match began play Wednesday, with players vying for the team championship and points toward the Commander's Cup trophy.

Units competing in the tournament are MACS-2, 1st Radio, PMRF, 1st ANGLICO and 1st Marine Brigade.

sinking the Yankees, 12-6.

Bill Bates powered a shot over the fence in leading the Phillies to a 7-4 victory over the A's, May 24, while the Tigers crushed the Yankees, 24-13.

Rounding out Little League action, the Braves dropped the Pirates, 6-1, with the Dodgers handing the Cardinals a 12-1 loss. The Indians kept their winning ways, sinking the Tigers, 12-9.

This Sunday, the "Game of the Year" will be played, with the umpires meeting the managers at 9 a.m. Play will be held on the Pony League Field and refreshments will be available.

Hanchett Wins Ace Day Play

Women golfers of the Kaneohe Women's Golf Club held an Ace Day and Low Putt Tournament last week, with Billie Hanchett winning top honors, firing a six-under-par, 88-19-69. Leona Simpson followed in the runner-up slot, carding a 90-19-71.

In the low putts, Pat Hansen and Stevie Doerr tied with 32 apiece. Mrs. Hansen shot a one-under-par, 93-19-74, with Mrs. Doerr tallying 90-16-74.

Betty Currier had a chip-in for the match.

Shaw Hurls No-Hitter Despite Fractured Arm

1st Radio Battalion hurler, Jim Shaw, added another no-hitter to his string of feats, his second of the season, as 1st Radio walloped Supply, 17-0 in Intramural Softball action, May 23.

The one-sided contest saw Shaw fan 12 of the 15 batters he faced, a high for the 1968 season.

In the third inning, Shaw broke his left wrist sliding into third base on a triple, but the injury

Major King Dixon returned to Quantico, Va., this week from the eastern swing of his Corps-wide football talent search. The results, he said, "were very surprising."

During the two-week, five-stop trip, the new Quantico football coach and two of his aides, Captains Woody Gilliland and John Gutter, looked at 345 prospects for the Marine Corps football team.

"The response," Dixon added, "was just unbelievable all the way. Every command seemed to do its utmost to make our trip successful. The cooperation we received from everyone just staggered us."

"At Norfolk, where we had expected only one or two candidates, nine men worked out with us." Most were from smaller units near Norfolk.

"Cherry Point had 38 candidates waiting for us," he said, "and they were also impressive."

At Camp Lejeune, N.C., the three coaches looked at 144 prospects from Marine Corps Base, the 2nd Marine Division, Force Troops, and New River. "They came in combat boots, tennis shoes, football cleats and barefeet," Dixon said. "In fact, everywhere we went on the trip, we were impressed with the number of people who want to play ball for the Corps."

"At Beaufort, S.C., we worked out with 54 men - far more than we had expected to see there. As with the other commands, the word was out and the response was just great."

There was no shortage of candidates at Parris Island either. Permanent personnel, recruits, didn't effect his play as he went on to complete the game.

The win marked the fifth for 1st Radio against a single setback at the hands of league leading Pacific Missile Range Facilities who sport an unblemished 6-0 record.

VICTOR AND THE SPOILS - James Shaw displays two softballs signifying his no-hitters thrown in intramural softball competition.

Search Surprising In Corps Grid Program

Marines from the Marine Corps Supply Center, Albany, Georgia, and some from ships all gathered at Parris Island to attend the workouts.

"There is a lot of football talent scattered throughout the Corps," Dixon said, "and we have compiled a list of names for future use. Some of the players we saw really impressed us."

In addition to those who worked out on the eastern seaboard, the coaches said another 150 questionnaires had been received at Headquarters Marine Corps from candidates serving overseas.

"We have hopes to equal or exceed that number of 345 candidates during our trip west," Dixon said. Gilliland, the former All-Marine end from West Texas State, thinks the total number of candidates "will probably be right around the thousand mark."

"We are looking for Marines who want to play and who can produce," said Dixon. "During our brief workouts, we stick to fundamentals, but we can pretty well tell who has the ability and desire."

The coaches plan to hold mid-summer tryouts at Quantico similar to those held on both coasts and will be relying on "home" talent. "I couldn't have asked for more on that Eastern trip," says Dixon, "unless it could have been for a seasoned quarterback."

"We saw some fine passers and ball-handlers, but we have no seasoned quarterback available who is a proven performer under great pressure. That remains our biggest question mark."
