JANUARY 2017

FOR THE MARINES AND POOLEES OF RS FORT WORTH
RECRUITING STATION FORT WORTH, 8TH MARINE CORPS DISTRICT

MESSAGE FROM THE COMMANDER

Spouses and families of Recruiting Station Fort Worth,

December was an outstanding month for RS Fort Worth with the RS able to make mission, clear discharges and garner 27 Dep and Holds attained towards January's month's mission despite two large 96's interspersed at the end of the month. Outstanding work by all of your Marines. Once again I am humbled and proud of the work being put forth by your Marines and the support each and every one of you give them on a daily basis. Our success is only possible with the continued dedication each and every family network provides to keep the recruiters and their loved ones focused and supported on the mission at work and at home.

I returned from San Diego in early December where the Marine Corps Recruiting Command held their annual National Operations and Training Symposium. A number of initiatives were addressed regarding the state of the Marine Corps recruiting effort and upcoming events geared towards supporting your recruiters on the streets. On a positive note the Recruiting Station was awarded the Superior Achiever Award for FY16 and we finished up the year ranked 13th overall in Western Recruiting Region. This was based on the Recruiting Station making all assigned missions with the requisite quality and quantity dictated by the Department of Defense and Headquarters Marine Corps. Great work by your Marines and I realize it wouldn't be possible without your steadfast support and encouragement. Once again I am humbled and proud of the work being put forth by your Marines and the support each and every one of you give them on a daily basis. Our success is only possible with the continued dedication each and every family network provides to keep the recruiters and their loved ones focused and supported on the mission at work and at home.

Hopefully, all of you had a terrific Holiday Season and were able to spend some much deserved time with your spouses and possibly your immediate and extended families. Please realize that with liberty periods in December come some long weeks for some to help to maintain and regain momentum going into the crucial FMAM (February, March, April, and May) all the while attempting to close out the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps submissions, trying to find the ever elusive MEOPer (Musician Enlistment Option Program) and always attempting to gain and maintain presence and relevance in each and every one of our priority and non-working schools, which are truly the bedrock of our success.

If there is anything either I, or the command, can do to support you or your families please do not hesitate to reach out. I truly believe that our successes are dependent upon both a happy Marine and a happy family. Please take care and enjoy the first month of 2017.

Semper Fidelis,
Major Robert F. May

MARINE CORPS KNOWLEDGE

DID YOU KNOW...?

Lieutenant Colonel Alfred Austell Cunningham was a United States Marine Corps officer who became the first Marine Corps aviator and the first Director of Marine Corps Aviation. First Lt. Alfred A. Cunningham became the first Marine to enter the world of aeronautics when he arrived at the aviation camp at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md., on May 22, 1912, with orders to learn how to fly. Today, Cunningham's reporting date is marked as the anniversary of Marine Corps aviation. The Navy's first three aviators, Lieutenants T.G. "Spuds" Ellyson, John Rodgers, and J.H. Towers, oversaw the camp's three aircraft and Cunningham's initial efforts.
