SAAPM urges 'Raise Your Voice'

FROM NAS KEY WEST
PUBLIC AFFAIRS

On Monday the Navy observes the 14th Annual Sexual Assault Awareness and Prevention Month with the theme "Raise Your Voice for Prevention."

The 2018 SAAPM theme is a reminder that everyone has a role to play in ensuring the men and women around us can live and work free from the threat of sexual assault to perform its mission. That mission also can be protected by ensuring everyone within the DOD is committed to advancing an environment where sexist behaviors and sexual harassment, hazing, bullying, and assault are not tolerated, condoned, or ignored.

The Month of the Military Child is part of the legacy of former Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger, who established the DOD commemoration in 1986 to highlight the year-round contributions, courage and patriotism of the military community's youngest members.

"Most people don't realize how different military kids' lives are and it's important to celebrate them," said Amanda Lynch, Naval Air Station Key West Child and Youth Programs teen coordinator. "To let them know that it's okay and we're supporting them."

During April, the Navy and DOD recognize the daily sacrifices mili-

Preparing for Easter

I often enjoy listening to hymns that were written in the far past. Because we are coming up on Easter, I looked up the hymn "O Sacred Head, Now Wounded."

I enjoy reading the lyrics written by songwriters that date back in history.

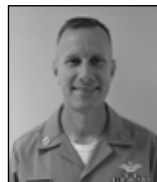

I like to feel their passion and try to understand what they may have been thinking at the time they wrote their hymns.

There are a lot of good songs that I could have chosen but I wanted to share just a few verses of this hymn with you today. So as you read think of it as a meditation for this Holy Easter

"O sacred Head, now wounded, With grief and shame weighed down, Now scornfully surrounded With thorns, thine only crown:

Lt. Cmdr.
Scott Mason

How pale thou art with anguish, With sore abuse and scorn!

"How does that visage languish Which once was bright as morn! What thou, my Lord, has suffered Was all for sinners' gain; Mine, mine was the transgression, But thine the deadly pain.

"Lo, here I fall, my Savior! 'Tis I deserve thy place; Look on me with thy favor, Vouchsafe to me thy grace.

"What language shall I borrow

To thank thee, dearest friend, For this thy dying sorrow, Thy pity without end?"

"O make me thine forever; And should I fainting be, Lord, let me never, never Outlive my love for thee."

Please join us for Easter services this Sunday. We will have a sunrise service at 7 a.m. at the Truman Beach (beyond the Beach Patio Recreation Center), and a second service at 10:30 a.m. Sigsbee Park Community Center; a potluck and egg hunt for the children will follow.

Renewable energy - wind, fire - has roots in history

FROM NAS KEY WEST ENERGY MANAGEMENT

Throughout history renewable energy sources, such as sunshine, wind, water, vegetation and the heat of the earth, have been successfully harnessed and used to provide energy.

Almost 2,500 years ago, the Greeks designed their homes to use winter sunlight for heating.

At that time, large, south-facing windows were used to collect solar heat, which was then stored in massive walls and floors for gradual release throughout the night to keep the home warm.

The wind has also been used as an energy source for centuries. Some of its early uses include propelling ships and pumping water.

Today's technological advancements have developed more efficient means of harnessing and using renewable energy sources, and these sources are gaining increasing popularity.

Children

tary children make and obstacles they overcome, such as frequent moves, separation from their active-duty parent and school changes.

"Moving and having to restart is often harder for high schoolers," said Lynch. "You don't get to graduate with your friends and sometimes you can't play the sports you loved playing at your last school."

This year NAS Key West celebrates the Month of the Military Child with Youth Fest from 2 - 5 p.m. at Sigsbee Field.

The event will have numerous activities for youngsters, including a paintball gallery, animal farm, face painting, inflatables, car smash, food, and a special performance by motivational rapper Absolut. The event is open to MWR-eligible patrons.

Sigsbee Charter School, whose student population is made up of mostly military dependents, also has a celebration planned from 8 - 9 a.m. April 13 at the school.

Military children make up a very special part of our nation's population.

"These kids haven't been here there whole life," said Lynch. "They may have a different point of view on things."

To show support and thank military children for their strength and sacrifices, the Defense Education Activity is celebrating by asking everyone to "Purple Up for Military Kids!" on April 18. Purple symbolizes the combined colors of all branches of the military - Army green, Air Force blue, Marine red, and Navy blue.

Naval Facilities Engineering Command Southeast, through a contractor, used lift bags to raise an F/A-18F Super Hornet aircraft out of shallow water March 19 following a crash just off the shore of Naval Air Station Key West's Boca Chica Field March 14. The lift bags allowed crews to float the aircraft to the end of the runway, where it was lifted by a crane, manned by NAS Key West Public Works employees, on to a flatbed tractor trailer. The aircraft was then taken to a hangar on base, where it is being studied by the Mishap Investigation Board.

Commander, Navy Installations Command is joining other Navy components and services to observe SAAPM with a variety of activities and events at installations across the enterprise.

Among the most important activities at Naval Air Station Key West is training Sailors and civilians as victims' advocates.

"I am very excited that we had 16 people from NAS Key West and several different tenant commands complete the initial SAPR Victim Advocate training," said Sexual Assault Response Coordinator Danielle Martin.

Martin and her team have planned a number of events during the month of April:

Proclamation Signing and Ribbon Tying - NAS Commanding Officer Capt. Bobby Baker hosts the signing and a ribbon tying to kickoff SAAPM at 10 a.m. Tuesday in Bldg. A-324 on Boca Chica Field. A SAPR Fair with resources and information on sexual health and responsibility follows at Bldg. A-515, Boca

Chica.

Walk a Mile in Their Shoes Competition - Walk, run and/or cycle in support of all survivors of sexual assault. Keep track of how many miles you walk, run and/or cycle (non-motorized pedal power only please) each day. Log your miles on the sheet posted at Boca Chica Gym or email to kaitlyn.gajda@navy.mil at the end of each week. Awards will be given for each category. The competition runs from April 1 - 21. Winners receive their awards at the SAPR Sports Day April 27. Unit SAPR Bulletin Board Challenge - Create a SAPR Display Board at your command. Photograph the display and email it to danielle.c.martin@navy.mil. The displays and the winner of the challenge will be posted on social media.

Denim/Wear Teal Day - Civilian employees are encouraged to wear something teal and jeans on April 25 to promote sexual assault awareness and start conversations around victim-blaming. The Denim Day campaign was originally triggered by a ruling from the Italian Supreme Court in which a rape conviction was overturned because the justices felt that since the victim was wearing tight jeans she must have helped her rapist remove her jeans, thereby implying consent.

SAPR Sports Day - Strike out Sexual Assault by joining us at this family-friendly event April 27 at Sigsbee Field. Commands will compete against each other in softball, basketball, and kickball followed by a barbecue. We will also have SAPR VA recognition and an awards ceremony. Register your command's team or hang out on the sidelines cheering on your team. All are encouraged to wear teal.

"I think the activities we have planned will be entertaining as well as informative for active duty, family and friends," Martin added.

Although the Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program is a year-round effort, SAAPM offers additional opportunities for members of the DOD community to renew their commitment to eliminating sexual assault from our ranks. Every Sailor, civilian and family member plays a part in reducing and eliminating sexual assault.

For more information, email Martin at danielle.martin@navy.mil or phone, 305-293-2408.
