"Find a way or make one!"

C/1-87IN Summit and B/1-32IN Chosin have come home!

A Soldier from Battle Co., 1-32IN is welcomed home by his family after six-month deployment to Djibouti, Africa.

Within one week of each other, Charlie Co., 1st Battalion, 87th Infantry Regiment, and Battle Co., 1st Battalion, 32nd Infantry Regiment, returned home to cheering families and a proud 1BCT leadership.

C Co., 1-87IN had deployed to Cameroon as part of U.S. Army Africa's Regionally Aligned Forces mission in support of Operation Ardent Sentinel. Over a six month period, C Co. provided force protection and base operations support to Contingency Location Garoua. They assisted Operation Juniper Shield in the counter Boko Haram effort, and worked hand in hand with joint and international military agencies.

B Co., 1-32IN was deployed to Djibouti, Africa, as part of the RAF mission in support of Combined Joint Task Force-Horn of Africa where they provided force protection as the East Africa Response Force. They also provided force protection and base operations support for Camp Lemonnier in Djibouti.

Their dedication to readiness, and their understanding of the strategic importance of the mission were instrumental in the accomplishment of their regional security mission.

Welcome home Mountain Warriors! Be proud!

Capt. Dunaway is reunited with his family as Charlie Co., 1-87IN and others from Task Force Darby return home from Cameroon.

Spring is in the air

As more snow begins to melt, more of that mysterious substance known as grass begins to sprout. That means more outdoor activities! Several Family Readiness Groups recently held Easter egg hunts and the Easter Bunny made it's annual appearance to include a stop for photo ops!

Morale Welfare and Recreation

Fort Drum and the surrounding areas have a wealth of activities for families and single Soldiers alike. Be sure to check out the Fort Drum MWR Face-book page at <https://www.facebook.com/DrumFMWR> and your battalion and company pages for more information.
