Suicide is a conscious and deliberate ending of one's own life. It occurs as a result of extreme emotional pain caused by various factors. Individuals who die by suicide often experience personal issues for which suicide is seen as the best or, sometimes, the only solution. "Suicides have increased this year," said NAS Key West Fleet and Family Support social worker, Jochebed Swilley. "It is important for everyone to be aware of the warning signs and to look out for each other.

One out of every five suicides in the United States involves a Service member or veteran. For the first quarter of this year, the military has had 80 suicide deaths in the active component, 18 suicide deaths in the Reserves, and 23 sui-

'Be strong and courageous'

Can you think of a time of great suffering or trial in your life? What did you learn and in what ways did you grow through it? As we all know wisdom can be listening to advice from others but it can also include listening to what life itself tells you through experience.

No one likes to suffer or have trials but they can grow in many ways. It can break us of being overconfident, showing us our weaknesses, making us more sympathetic, helping us to be more resilient and dependent on God. Of course this never happens overnight and definitely is not automatic. There are some people who can go through some pretty excruciating times but learn nothing.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

NAS Key West
Command Chaplain

Lt. Cmdr.

Scott Mason

So what will make the difference? The nature of foolishness is to be "wise in your own eyes." There is a great temptation for those who suffer to assume that because we can't think of any good reason for this suffering that God surely does not have a good reason for it either. If you cannot imagine a God who is infinitely wiser and more loving than you, then you will never be able to trust the character of God.

We are reminding numerous times in scripture that God is sovereign, trustworthy and will not forsake those that seek Him. In Joshua 1:9 it says "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go."

Please come and join us on Sundays at 10:30 a.m. this Sunday we will be at the Community Center on Sigsbee Annex for worship service with our Praise Band and Children's Church. Please visit our Facebook page (NAS Key West Chapel) for upcoming events. If you are in need of Chaplain Care, please call your Chaplains at 305-293-2318, Naval Air Station Key West, or 305-292-8788, Coast Guard Sector Key West.

Navy College Program launches new survey

BY ED BARKER
NETPDC Public Affairs

The Navy College Program (NCP) announced a new, more efficient customer service opinion survey July 24, as part of the continuing improvement process for Voluntary Education.

"The survey asks for Sailors' opinions about the Navy College Program's education support, counseling services, information, and admin," said Don Squibb, Navy VOLED assessments program manager. "We're seeking feedback on their experience so we can adjust and improve our service."

According to Squibb, the new survey asks only ten questions, and the average Sailor completes their input in just over four minutes.

"The surveys are the primary channel we have to gather customers input on how we're doing, and we use the fleet feedback to refine the service delivery of the Navy College Virtual Education Center," he said. "By shortening the survey, we hope to increase participation while retaining key information."

Navy VOLED Director Ernest D'Antonio noted that constant process improvement is key to serving Sailor's educational needs.

"Over the past two years, we've made significant improvements to the Navy College Program's customer service, and much of that was based on Sailor input," said D'Antonio. "We've completely revamped the Navy College Program website, added customer-friendly improvements such as our mobile application, automated WebTA processing, chat and trouble-ticket features, made self-service improvements in My Education and to NCP internal processes to ensure we are meeting Sailor's high expectations in keeping with CNP's transformation guidance. Any Sailor, CONUS or OCONUS, can use the survey link to provide feedback."

One measure of NCP success that has been identified by the customer satisfaction surveys is the number of times a Sailor has to contact the Navy College Virtual Education Center (NCVEC) in order to solve a problem.

"According to our latest survey feedback, 80 percent of Sailors are able to resolve their issue with their first call to the NCVEC," said Squibb. "That's not perfect, but it's a great indication that we're moving in the right direction."

The link to the new NCP customer service opinion survey is: http://www.research.net/r/NCVEC\_CSAT\_SURV\_V2.

Suicide

cide deaths in the National Guard.

There are no specific demographics associated with suicides, but there may be warning signs that can be observed by those in contact with someone contemplating suicide. Acting withdrawn, displaying decreased work performance, showing lack of focus or consuming increased amounts of alcohol may be signs of someone who needs help, but it is also possible a person will show little or no signs of suicide.

"The goal of Fleet and family is to help reduce suicides," said Swilley. "We are available to speak with anyone who may be feeling stressed or just need to talk to someone."

There are many factors that may lead a person to contemplate suicide such as financial problems, relationship issues or depression, but all of these have a common factor of producing stress. Understanding and managing stress cannot only help prevent suicides, but can improve a person's overall quality of life.

Understanding suicidal issues and mental health is one of the first steps in suicide prevention.

The Navy's message for Suicide Prevention Month is again "1 Small ACT." This message promotes that simple, everyday actions of caring can save lives by using the Navy's ACT (Ask Care Treat) bystander intervention model.

Throughout the month of August, NAS Key West will be getting volunteers to pose with posters demonstrating their commitment to support every Sailor. The little things that we can do as shipmates, leaders and family members every day can make a big difference in the lives of others.

Patients of NBHC Key West receive an automated appointment reminder phone call two days before their scheduled appointment. This reminder call now allows patients to cancel their appointment directly from the phone call's menu. Patients can also cancel or reschedule by calling the appointment line or using www.TRICAREonline.com.

To cancel an appointment, please do so at least 24 hours in advance.

When you miss or “no-show” for a medical or dental appointment, it keeps another sailor, Marine, family member, or retiree from using that appointment slot for the care they need. This means it can also impact the medical and dental readiness of the Navy fighting force.

When a patient doesn't cancel in time, or doesn't show up, the provider can't simply shift the rest of the day's patients to fill that space. The time slot goes unused and is wasted for the provider, staff, and another patient who could have used the appointment.

When a patient doesn't show up, it prevents another patient (who might have an urgent need) from being seen at that time.

Although some cancellations are inevitable, in the private sector, providers can sometimes charge a no-show fee (up to $50) for no-shows or cancellations made less than 24 hours in advance.

While military treatment facilities don't function this way, no-shows do have a negative impact. Without advance notice, staff are unable to rebook no-shows, although taxpayers are paying staff.

So, to cancel or reschedule, please do so at least 24 hours in advance. Go to www.TRICAREonline.com (available 24/7), or respond to the reminder phone call, or call the appointment line
