

6-37 FAR medics compete

Staff Sgt. Randy Brandt and Sgt. Rodney Espinal, combat medic specialists with Headquarters and Headquarters Battery, 6th Battalion, 37th Field Artillery Regiment, execute a 12-mile foot march for the final event of the Eighth Army Best Medic Competition, July 11, Camp Casey. (U.S. Army photo by Sgt. Osvaldo Martinez)

2-18 FAR assumes role as rotational MLRS battalion

2nd Battalion (Mission Ready), 18th Field Artillery Regiment assumed its role as the rotational multiple launch rocket system battalion at a transfer of authority ceremony with 3rd Battalion (Red Dragons), 13th Field Artillery Regiment, July 19, 2019, Camp Casey, Republic of Korea. 2-18 FAR is an MLRS battalion assigned to 75th Field Artillery Brigade out of Fort Sill, Oklahoma. 3-13 FAR and 2-18 FAR executed a seamless transition in support of the ROK-US alliance.

“Mission Ready, you have lived up to your motto and truly arrived ‘mission ready’ and focused on winning.”

Col. Jonathan Velishka, Thunder 6

Why We Serve

“I joined the Army to travel, go to college, and see what I’m made of.”
(U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Shim, Jun-taek)

Pfc. Kennan Lindsay, 94P
Culpeper, Virginia
Battery B., 6-37 FAR

Photos by Capt. Daniel Parker and Sgt. Osvaldo Martinez

THUNDER | 210 FA BDE

The Big Three

Staff Sgt. Jacob Young and Pvt. Timothy Shelton, multiple launch rocket system crewmembers, Battery A, 1st Battalion, 38th Field Artillery Regiment, stand together in front of their MLRS during 1-38's live fire exercise, June 25, 2019, South Korea.

Sgt. Dionysis Santiago, multiple launch rocket system crewmember, Battery A, 1st Battalion, 38th Field Artillery Regiment, loads his MLRS during 1-38 FAR's live fire exercise, June 25, 2019. The 1-38 FAR honed its skills and successfully conducted their battalion live fire due in large part to the hard work of each Soldier.

(Photos by Sgt. Osvaldo Martinez)

Which photo do you think is best?

Click the photos to see them on Facebook and Instagram.

Pvt. Timothy Shelton, multiple launch rocket system crewmember, Battery A, 1st Battalion, 38th Field Artillery Regiment, stands in front of his MLRS during 1-38 FAR's live fire exercise, June 25, 2019, South Korea.

From the
Unit Ministry
Team

Pfc. Lim, Ye-dong (210 FA BDE UMT) | On July 12, the brigade unit ministry team hosted the first ever 'Thunder scavenger hunt' in Seoul. Newly arrived Soldiers to Camp Casey learned how to use public transportation and took in the sights of Seoul. Everyone enjoyed lunch together and visited the popular shopping district of Myungdong. If you or a battle buddy are interested, please contact Pfc. Lim at yedong.lim.fm@mail.mil or 010-8806-6599. See some photos here.

THUNDER | 210 FA BDE

Community Connection

Do you need to get your blood pumping? Every Saturday, the Camp Casey Outdoor Recreation office has paintball from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

To reserve a spot, contact the outdoor recreation office at 0503-330-6195 or visit building S-2236. Click the photo for more information.

This is only one of many activities available to Soldiers. Stop by the Casey Activity Center to see what else you can do to explore Korea.

This is for information purposes only.

(U.S. Air Force photo by Airman 1st Class Xiomara Martinez)

What are you waiting for?

Retaining The Best

This month's feature re-enlistment photo comes from Battery B, 1st Battalion, 38th Field Artillery Regiment. Staff Sgt. Justin Stanek reenlisted at Camp Bonifas, July 1, 2019. (photo courtesy of Staff Sgt. Cameron Kirby, 210th FAB career counselor)

Do you have some great reenlistment photos? We'd like to share them. Just email them to us with a brief description.

The Voice of Thunder is a command information product produced for the Soldiers, Families, friends and veterans of 210th Field Artillery Brigade. It is developed and maintained by 210th FAB public affairs. Email us if you have questions. Have something you'd like us to share? Send us an email. Everyone has a story to tell!

Controlling The Best | Second to None

THUNDER | 210 FA BDE

Soldier of the Month
THUNDER | 210 FA BDE

Pfc. Luis Gonzalez, Caguas, Puerto Rico native, intelligence analyst with Headquarters and Headquarters Battery, 210th Field Artillery Brigade, developed high quality intelligence products while serving in the brigade S2 section. He exceeded all expectations of his peers and leaders. (U.S. Army photo by Capt. Dan Parker)

KATUSA of the Month
THUNDER | 210 FA BDE

Cpl. Jeong, Young-jin, Busan native, human resources specialist, Headquarters and Headquarters Battery, 210th Field Artillery Brigade, supported his battery every day through invaluable administrative support. He exceeded all expectations of his peers and leaders. (U.S. Army photo by Capt. Dan Parker)

Excellence in our ranks

