

U.S. Army officer pins ROK Army officer

Ltc. Karel Morris, DCO of 210th FAB pins the rank of Captain on ROKA Capt. Ha, Jin-su, military intelligence officer, August 1, 2019. Although U.S. and Republic of Korea Army Soldiers work together daily, it is not typical for ROK Army officer to request a U.S. Army Officer to preside over his promotion. (U.S. Army photo by Capt. Daniel Parker)

Motor stables host training

Sergeant Desiree Morales Candelaria, tactical power generation specialist, Arecibo, Puerto Rico native, Headquarters Support Company, 70th Brigade Support Battalion, provides instruction on operator-level generator maintenance, July 22, 2019. Soldiers trained on operator-level generator maintenance in order to maintain individual and unit readiness for upcoming training events.

Why We Serve

"I wanted to do something that makes a difference, and I wanted to travel to see the world and learn new things." (U.S. Army photo by Pfc. Shim, Jun-taek)

Pfc. Kennan Lindsay, 94P
Culpeper, Virginia
Battery B., 6-37 FAR

Photos by Capt. Daniel Parker and Sgt. Osvaldo Martinez

THUNDER | 210 FA BDE

The Big Three

Pfc. Brock Elliot, left, combat medic specialist assigned to HHB 6th Battalion 37th FAR receives an intravenous infusion from Pfc. Jacob Gutowski, combat medic specialist with HHB 6th BN 37th FAR

Private first class Jacob Gutowski, Lowell, Michigan native, combat medic specialist, assigned to HHB, 6th Battalion, 37th FAR, receives an intravenous infusion during training, August 14, 2019, Camp Casey, Republic of Korea. Gutowski and medics from 210th FAB practiced giving each other IVs in order to maintain their skills.

Pvt. Carlos Ruiz, combat medic specialist, assigned to HHB, 1st BN, 38th FAR, administers an intravenous infusion on a fellow Soldier during training.

(Photos by Capt. Daniel Parker)

Which photo do you think is best?

Let us know on Facebook and Instagram.

From the
Unit Ministry
Team

Chaplain (Captain) Jeremy Lytle (6-37 FAR BN Chaplain, Senior Pastor, West Casey Chapel) | We would like to highlight two events. First, we invite everyone to our fellowship meal of Popeye's chicken and popular Bible study, Wednesdays at 1830 at the West Casey Chapel. Next, everyone is invited to the Camp Casey Outdoor Worship Service and Picnic on 29 September at the Soldiers Field picnic area beginning at 1100. Please come, and bring friends! please contact Pfc. Lim at yedong.lim.fm@mail.mil or 010-8806-6599.

THUNDER | 210 FA BDE

Community Connection

Do you need to get out of your room? Every Saturday, the Camp Casey MWR office has a DMZ partial tour from 09:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

To reserve a spot, contact the MWR office at DSN: 730-3151 or visit building S-2236. Click the photo for more information.

This is one of many activities available to Soldiers, so stop by the Casey Activity Center to see what else you can explore in Korea.

This is for information purposes only.

Don't just stay in, get out and see Korea!

Retaining The Best

This month's feature re-enlistment photo comes from 2nd Battalion, 18th Field Artillery Regiment. Sfc. Christopher Love, reenlisted at Camp Casey, August 1, 2019. (U.S. Army photo courtesy of 2lt. Lolita Naricisse 2-18th FA, BN, Chemical Officer)

Do you have some great reenlistment photos? We want to share them. Just email them to us with a brief description.

The Voice of Thunder is a command information product produced for the Soldiers, Families, friends and veterans of 210th Field Artillery Brigade. It is developed and maintained by 210th FAB public affairs. Email us if you have questions. Have something you'd like us to share? Send us an email. Everyone has a story to tell!

Controlling The Best / Second to None

THUNDER | 210 FA BDE

Soldier of the Month
THUNDER | 210 FA BDE

Pfc. Moriah Timbrook, Marquette, Michigan native, multiple launch rocket system crewmember and driver in Battery A, 6th Battalion, 37th Field Artillery Regiment, worked countless hours improving her skills to ensure readiness in her launcher and her Battery. Timbrook is always a motivating force in PT, displaying positive attitude and willingness to achieve a high level of physical fitness. (U.S. Army Photo by Sgt. Osvaldo Martinez)

KATUSA of the Month
THUNDER | 210 FA BDE

Cpl. Won, Jae Hwan, Sokcho native, exceptionally serves in multiple capacities within Headquarters and Headquarters Battery 6th Battalion-37th Field Artillery Regiment. From Head and Headquarters Battery Supply room, to Battalion Fire Direction Center and recently as the Battalion translator. He is a vital part to the organization's success and Won's abilities increase the Battalion's interoperability with ROKA units. (U.S. Army Photo by Sgt. Osvaldo Martinez)

Excellence in our ranks

