Survey Party Arrives Here Today Study Of Base

An On-Site Survey Party One, headed by Rear B. Jarrett, arrived here at 9 a.m. this morning for a one-day stay. The party, consisting of the Adjutant, 22 members from the 2d Lt. Washington, including C. Funk, Marine Corps representative, and five civilians. Upon their arrival a conference was held in the conference room, Joint Landing Force where the mission of the Survey Party, its organizational functions were discussed. Covered was billeting, works, fire department, activities, housing, both military and civilian, industrial, recreation, and supply. The top at Lejeune is part of the survey party's inspection tour of the Fifth Naval District. The party departs tomorrow morning for Hadnot Point.

Full Operation Of Expanded Phone System Due April 1

By PFC EMIL DANSKER

Camp Lejeune's newly-expanded telephone system is expected to be in full operation by April 1, according to 1st Lt. H. J. Leak, officer in charge of the Camp Telephone section.

When completed, the new system will more than double available telephone lines, will see telephone numbers go from three and four to five digits and will see the fire alarm number changed from 7070 to 3333.

Included in the half million dollar project are:

1. New exchange buildings at Camp Geiger, Montford Point and Courthouse Bay.
2. Two new switchboard positions in the main exchange in Bldg. 1, Hadnot Point.
3. A new two-position test desk in the main exchange.
4. Two new information stations in the main exchange.

In addition, available lines will be increased from 200 lines to 400 lines at Camp Geiger, from 400 to 600 lines at Midway Park, from 600 to 800 lines at Paradise Point and from 1,400 to 1,800 lines at Hadnot Point.

Two-hundred-line each dial exchanges will replace the switchboards at Montford Point and Courthouse Bay. Boards will remain in operation at the rifle range and the Naval hospital.

The change will release seven Marine operators from the Montford Point and Courthouse Bay exchanges. Three civilian operators will be added to the Hadnot Point exchange.

The additional main exchange switchboard positions and the new information desks will better enable the exchange to handle peak loads. From the new test desk technicians will be able to spot trouble at any Camp phone "by dialing the number and turning switches."

The new number of the already-installed special repair desk phone will change from 3100 to 114. New phone books will be issued a week before the exact date of the changeover.

Staffed by 18 civilians and 43 Marine installers, repairmen and cable crewmen, the phone system handles more than 90,000 calls a week. Valuation of the system—which has more than $200,000 in the telephone section, alone—will be increased to more than one and a half million dollars.

Rifle Range Record Shattered As Capt. Blair Fires 243

A new Camp rifle range record was set Friday.

Capt. George G. Blair fired a 243 with the M-1 to break the previous high of 241, set only two weeks ago by Capt. F. M. Humphrey, Tenth Marines.

Captain Blair, former commanding officer of "G" Co., 3rd Bn.,

CAPTAIN BLAIR

Sixth Marines, is presently awaiting transfer to the Far East.

Before entering the Marine Corps he was a member of the National Rifle Association and once won the Camp Perry National Award for high individual shooter. He also holds a third place trophy in the Nationals.

He was a member of the Lejeune rifle team for the past two years.

MSgt. A. W. Faby, 8th Engineer Bn., Force Troops, took top honors with the pistol last week. He fired 983 of 1000.

Board Nominates 681 For Captaincies

A selection board has nominated 681 first lieutenants for promotion to captain.

A number of Camp Lejeune officers were included in the list, which is expected to be made effective this month. More than 800 officers' files were screened by the board.

Included in the list were 163 Reserve officers on active duty, 46 Naval flyers and eight limited duty officers.

Railroads Continue Low Furlough Rates

Reduced furlough fares for military personnel traveling at their own expense have been extended another three months, the nation's railroads have announced.

The extension will run until June 30. The reduction allows eligible servicemen a saving of up to one cent a mile on rail fares.

Gens. Linscott, Good To Visit Azalea Festival March 25-28

Maj. Gen. Henry D. Linscott, commanding general, MCB, and Maj. Gen. George F. Good Jr., commanding general, 2nd Division, are included on the list of dignitaries expected to appear at the Wilmington Azalea Festival, March 25-28.

Brig. Gen. Matthew C. Horner, deputy president, Joint Landing Force board, and current acting commanding general, MCB, and Brig. Gen. F. B. Loomis Jr., commanding general, Force Troops, also will attend.

The 2nd Division band and the 2nd Bn., Eighth Marines will take part in the mammoth parade that has featured each of the six previous festivals in the southwestern Carolina city.

Other military units planning to appear include the 2nd Marine Air Wing band and a platoon of Women Marines from the Cherry Point Marine Air Station. Cherry Point's commanding general, Brig. Gen. S. S. Jack, also will appear.

One of the east coast's outstanding spring events, the annual Azalea Festival is a four-day round of parades, shows, plays, dances, coronations and sporting events. (See FESTIVAL, Page 3)

Change To Khakis Coming April 12

Get your khakis ready. Lejeune will switch to the summer uniform at 8 a.m. April 12, according to a Camp memorandum out last week.

In case the weather turns chilly after that, area commanders can prescribe greens for guards and MP's until May 1.

All hands will wear ties until 8 a.m. May 10. After that ties may be omitted from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.

All hands will wear ties when entering and leaving the reservation and when outside the reservation.

Guards and MP's on duty within the reservation after May 10 will only wear the tie on special occasions as directed by area commanders.

Hauser Named Supply Officer; Roberts Leaves

Meroy Hauser, former commanding officer, Marine Corps Supply Depot, relieved Col. Charles Roberts as Camp Supply officer today.

Hauser, holder of the Cross for valor in France World War I, has been assigned duties as station superintendent, Marine Corps Recruit San Diego, Calif.

Hauser served as 1st Supply officer in Korea during his assignment to the Depot last October, and served as chief of staff, Corps Depot of Supplies, Okinawa.

Colonel Roberts was the "original" Marine, serving with the unit in 1917-18, and also awarded the Distinguished Service Silver Star and Purple Heart with two Oak Leaf Clusters and the Bronze Medal for World War II.

N. A. Sisak, former executive officer, Supply Depot, has command upon Col. Hauser's departure.

Guys Order Of Day Wed.

SGT. BILL (O') DAUM

and the big day is almost here and me without a shammy's a shame, indeed, for wearin' the green next day, you know.

Today's day it is, no less!

There have come and gone, the records you'll be sure many with a bit Erin names. So we decided to with the Camp Locater, had named Reynolds, just how many here hark the Old Sod. Leads the parade, without with 47 members of the band. If you add those with you'd come up with 28 the McCarthys themselves sing close behind with 41,athing down their necks are the Sullivans with 39.

Like the song about Donegal, there are a lot more. The Calahans and Boyles, the Murphys and the Burkes. There's O'Toole and O'Malley, Walsh and Kennedy. And a lot more, too. Several hundred, in fact.

Ah, yes, then there's the "Me's." Too many to count them all separately, but together they total 776!

Adding all together we could form an Irish battalion, to be sure.

Apologies to those we missed. There are bound to be some, we're sure of that.

But don't go swingin' that shillelagh at me, laddie, I wuz only donnin' me duty!

The top of the mornin' to you all, the plaid, and may the luck of the stick be with you always.

New Number, Same Service From Camp Fire Department

By PFC EMIL DANSKER

Memorize that number—it's the one you'll use to report fires after the Camp Telephone Exchange completes its change-over later this month.

It's a new number, but it'll get you the same efficient service from one of eastern Carolina's top fire-fighting outfits: the Camp Lejeune Fire Department.

Charged with the fire-safety of a multi-million dollar investment here, the Lejeune smoke-eaters maintain a round-the-clock system of fire protection that allows any of its 11 companies to reach a blaze anywhere in the Camp in three to five minutes.

The soon-to-be-radio-equipped trucks can handle virtually every type of fire using foamite generators, CO2 or fog spray and can douse a blaze with more than 1,500 gallons of water a minute.

The sleek red trucks—12 on duty and two standby—carry 35-foot aluminum section ladders, scaling ladders, rope, forcible entry tools, handlights and salvage covers for protecting valuable goods from

HE LAUGHED IN HELL — TSgt. Harbart C. Nixon, materiel communications chief, Tenth Marines, displays the jacket of a book titled "Laughter In Hell," soon to be published.

Ex-POW's Ordeal In Japanese Prisons Told In New Book, 'Laughter In Hell'

A Lejeune marine who spent most of World War II in Jap prison camps is a leading character in a new book slated for publication soon.

He is TSgt. Harbart C. Nixon, materiel communications chief, Tenth Marines.

The title of the book is "Laughter In Hell." It describes the ordeal of Nixon and his comrade, Lt. Ernest L. Guirey, and other prisoners at the hands of the Japs.

Stephen Marek wrote the book after hearing accounts by Nixon and Guirey.

Sgt. Nixon enlisted in the Corps in April, 1941, following his graduation from Taft, Calif., Union High school.

Ordered to Guam, he was wounded and captured on December 13, 1941, when the island was overrun by Japanese troops.

Next came a series of bunshos (Jap prison camps). The first was Zentsuji, the Tanagawa, called by the prisoners the "Hell Camp." That was where Nixon met Lt. Guirey. Then came Umeda Bunsho in Osaka, and, finally, Tsuruga.

The book narrates how Nixon and the other prisoners preferred beatings for stealing food to slow starvation; of how he and other prisoners had their first inkling that the war was over in August, 1945; how they took over a Jap ship and used its radio; raised the American flag they made out of parachutes used to drop supplies; and how they liberated themselves and took off for Yokohama.

Sergeant Nixon was flown from Yokohama to Guam where he was hospitalized. He was returned to the states and discharged in February, 1946.

As a civilian Nixon attended Farragut college in Farragut, Idaho, then worked as a radio technician. At the outbreak of the Korean fighting he joined an Organized Reserve unit he knew would be activated and within a month found himself in the third wave on the beach at Inchon with "B" Co., 1st AmTracs, 1st Division.

Sgt. Nixon plans to remain in the Corps. He and his wife live at Tarawa Terrace.

"Laughter In Hell" will be published sometime this spring by Caxton printers.

water damage.

The rescue truck carries aspirators, masks and oxygen tanks, in addition to portable floodlight generators, cutting torches and grappling hooks.

Led by Fire Chief Frank J. Schlarp, who came to Lejeune in 1948 from Bellvue, Pa., a Pittsburgh suburb, the department is staffed by 65 civilians and 120 marines. The trucks' crews are led by civilian fire lieutenants.

The veteran chief, a fireman since 1929, spent two years in the Navy as a fire-fighting specialist and instructor. For the past 10 years he has been an instructor at the annual Pennsylvania State Fire School, Lewistown, Pa.

The civilian chief said he expects the department to eventually become completely non-military in the interests of experience and stability. The turnover in marine firemen is too rapid for either, he said.

What happens when the department answers its daily call—based on more than 250 runs in the past six months?

First, the fire report comes to the fire dispatcher in Bldg. 18. The dispatcher takes the name of the caller and the building number. Then he presses a key on a control board and gives the information to a circuit common to all the fire stations.

In 30 to 40 seconds the proper fire company is out of its station. Because of high valuation and low water pressure the Lejeune department uses two-piece fire companies in the Industrial area.

This means simply that while the hose-wagon moves directly into the fire site to determine if its truck-tank capacity is adequate to fight the blaze, the pumper stops at the nearest hydrant making a stronger flow available if needed.

Twelve of the department's 14 $12,400 trucks were delivered during 1953. The remaining two are less than three years old. A specially-designed rescue truck currently is under construction.

In addition to protecting Lejeune's more than 5,000 structures, the department also gives mutual aid to outside communities. In March of last year three companies helped fight a $57,000 fire in Wilmington.

All mascots are popular in troops, but this one has been placed on a pedestal. Why? because Sam has been mounted. He used to be one of the kind, but now Fox Company him sewed up. However, it seems to bother Sam.

His sense of humor keeps him from getting stitches.

Sixth Div. Officers Set Annual Dinner

The eighth annual 6th Division officers' dinner will be held at Quantico April 21. The dinner will be presided over by the division commander.

Reservations should be made prior to March 20, by writing Col. F. F. Parry, Marine Education Center, Marine Schools, Quantico. A check for $7 should be enclosed with the request.

The banquet will be held in the Lee hall and will get underway at 6 p.m. There will be a 1 1/2 hour, a filet mignon dinner and a nationally known speaker.

Five Supply Depot Employees Given 20-Year Gold Pins

At an informal ceremony in his office last week, Col. Leroy Hauser, former commanding officer, Marine Corps Supply Depot, presented 20-year Federal service awards to five depot employees.

Four of the men honored are ex-marines, all having served 20 years or more in the Corps.

The employees and their years of Federal service:

Rufus T. Pearson, ex-MSgt., 21 years, machinist in electronics supply; Wayne Wilson, ex-SSgt., 23 years, small arms repairman, ordnance supply; John Wallace, ex-MSgt., 26 years, small arms repairman, ordnance supply; Benjamin F. Shelton, 21 years, personnel assistant, civilian section; and Elsvard A. Turner, ex-MSgt., 22 years, property and supply clerk, general supply section.

All were awarded gold pins in recognition of their honorable service.

Movie Star, Marines Combine Forces To Throw Party For Vieques Children

VIEQUES, P. R.—"Operation School Kid" was the title of an exercise recently conducted by Lejeune marines participating in the Lant TRAEX 2-54 maneuvers on Vieques. Also on hand was movie star Van Heflin.

More than 500 school children and their teachers from the town of Isabel Segunda and rural areas on the island were guests at the Marine camp.

The operation was held in conjunction with the observance of George Washington's birthday.

The marines felt that the birthday was an opportune time to give the children an opportunity to better acquaint themselves with the Marine Corps. The youngsters learned the reason for the marines being on their island and the part the Corps is playing in national defense.

The children were given a tour of the camp in 27 trucks. They saw demonstrations by helicopters of Marine Air Group 26 of the 2nd Marine Air Wing; amphibious landing vehicles of Force Troops, and medium tanks of the 2nd Division.

They were later entertained by the 2nd Division band.

Refreshments were furnished by Warner Brothers, Inc. Heflin, star of the Cinemascope movie "Battle Cry," now being filmed on the island, helped distribute the refreshments.

Arrangements for the "open house" were made by Brig. Gen. Henry R. Paige, commander of Lant TRAEX 2-54, and local officials of the island.

- Short Rounds -

Changes

Changes are coming soon in the ranks of Corps general officers. Maj. Gen. Silverthorn, Parris Island commanding general, last week requested retirement. And last week's "Navy Times" reported that Lt. Gen. Clifton B. Cates, commandant of the Marine Corps School, Quantico, and former Commandant of the Corps, will follow suit in May or June.

Meanwhile Col. Frances M. McAllister, chief of staff, FMF Pacific, was upped to one-star rank last week, filling the vacancy created by the retirement of William J. Scheyer, who retired as a major general.

General Scheyer was a veteran of World War II campaigns. At the time of his retirement he was assistant commander of the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton.

Old Planes Never Die—

A once great Marine warrior is fast fading away.

It's the old Corsair, famed fighter plane once regarded as the backbone of Marine aviation.

The Old-Corps style propeller-driven plane is being replaced by the "New Corps" jets.

The 3rd Marine Air Wing in Miami reported last week that the last of its Corsairs will be replaced by jets before July.

Hail and farewell.

Return To China

For the third time in their history, elements of the Fourth Marines landed recently on Chinese soil.

This time they landed on Formosa as escort for the more than 14,000 Chinese prisoners who chose to join Chiang Kai-Shek rather than return to the Red homeland.

The 3rd Bn. of the regiment, commanded by Lt. Col. Cecil D. Ferguson, made the landing.

The "Old Fourth" served in China from 1927 to 1941 and elements returned for duty in 1946.

Hospital Gets New Catholic Chaplain

Lt. Cmdr. Victor J. Lustig, who served his first tour of duty as a Navy chaplain at Camp Lejeune in 1944, is the new Catholic chaplain at the Naval hospital.

Chaplain Lustig arrived here Feb. 26 after more than a year as Catholic chaplain at the Yokusuka Naval Base, Yokusuka, Japan.

Before that he served 16 months aboard the hospital ship Consolation in Korean waters, and six months with the 1st Division in Korea.

The Old Corps

Ten years ago this week: The name of this base was officially changed from Camp Lejeune, New River, N. C., to just Camp Lejeune, N. C.

The GLOBE carried a photo of 12 marines aboard a troop transport bound for the invasion of Roi and Namur islands on Kwajalein Atoll. Their heads were shaved to form letters and they were lined up to spell "Victory USMC." Only eleven letters?

The twelfth man was the dot on the "i."

Lt Col. Peter Van Ness assumed duties as the new Camp Personnel officer succeeding Lt. Col. James T. Wilbur.

The GLOBE featured a two-page spread on the war dogs being trained here. Many dogs from Lejeune were later cited for outstanding performances under fire in the Pacific.

"Charlie" Malone, 210-pound Texan who teamed up with Sammy Baugh to become one of football's greatest combinations was studying combat communication techniques at Lejeune. He was a Pfc.

Movies showing at Camp theaters were: "Swingshift Maisie," with Ann Southern; "Guadalcanal Diary," with Preston Foster, William Bendix; and "Return of the Vampire," with Bela Lugosi.

PROJECTIONISTS NEEDED

Men experienced in 35MM projector operation or interested in learning projector technique may contact SSGT. Oxley at the Camp theater. The work will be assigned as extra duty.

LOOKING OVER THE GOODS—Lt. Col. Nicholas A. Sisak, new commanding officer, Marine Corps Supply Depot, examines a sport at civilian clothes counter of new Industrial Area exchange office opened last Monday. Self-service style, the new exchange also has toilet articles, books and magazines, and photographic supplies in under direction of CWO Stephen J. Purdy. It's located in 1208 (Official USMC Photo).

Chaplain's Corner

"Good Heavens!—Any one thing in creation is sufficient to monstrate a Providence to a humble and grateful mind. The meribility of producing milk from grass, cheese from milk, and wo skins—who formed and planned it? Ought we not, whether or plow or eat, to sing this hymn to God? Great is God, who he us hands and instruments of digestion; who has given us to g sensibly and to breathe in sleep. These things we ought forever o But because most of you are blind and insensible, there must b one to fill this station. And lead in behalf of all men, the hymn. For what else can I do, a lame old man, but sing hymns to God. I a nightingale I would eat the part of a nightingale; were I a sw part of a swan. But since I am a reasonable creature, it is my prai praise God and I call on you to join the same song."

You might think that the above quotation was written by a grateful Christian. As a matter of fact it is from the pagan philosopher Epictetus who lived about 100 years after Christ. But spirit of gratitude to God it puts many so-called Christianshame.

CHRISTIANS should try to show forth more love to God gratitude to Christ; more trust in the Holy Ghost. "Be filled w Spirit—always and for everything giving thanks in the name of Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father."—Chaplain R. W. Keil Motor Transport Bn.

Girl Scouts Schedule International Show As Finale To 'Week'

Highlight and climax to Girl Scout week at Lejeune will be an international exhibit at the Camp School auditorium tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m.

The week began for Lejeune's Brownies and Girl Scouts last Saturday as they watched a review of the Eighth Marines on the parade ground.

Yesterday they visited radio station WJNC, Jacksonville.

As part of the observance the girls are turning in their contributions for the Juliette Low World Fellowship fund which supports "Our Chalet" in Switzerland. Every summer outstanding girls from each nation are chosen to attend the international conclave held at the Swiss retreat—there to exchange experiences and promote international good will and understanding.

Fund Goal Reached By Infant Of Prague

The $100,000 Infant of Prague expansion fund has been oversubscribed by more than $2,000, Father Ambrose F. Rohrbacher, church pastor, has announced.

Work on the project will be resumed immediately according to Father Rohrbacher.

The Church now has launched a drive for the local goal of $4,196 for the Diocesan Development fund for missionary work in North Carolina.

June, Ginny Fain Star In WM Sister Act; Third Sister To Enlist After Graduation

WM Company's only sister team, Pfc's June and Virginia Fain, arose one morning last summer in Tulsa, Okla., where they shared an apartment, and decided to fulfill their greatest ambition.

Seeking adventure and new friends, the two, who had been together through high school, business school and working on the outside, enlisted in the Marine Corps.

Both consider it pure luck that they were stationed together after er boot camp. "First I received orders for San Francisco, and June was to be stationed at Parris Island," Ginny recalls with a shudder. "Just when we thought we'd be separated, our orders were changed to Lejeune."

June, who is 22, and Ginny, 20, are bunnies and share their details. In the morning Ginny reports for work at the Camp Provost Marshal's office and June goes to Machine Records Installation as a key punch operator, but in the evening they join forces to practice softball. Both plan to go out for the team this spring.

June was Ginny's greatest fan during the past basketball season, and kept her supplied with the bright red hair ribbons she wore for luck in the games.

There are six children in the Fain family, June being the oldest. Another sister, Willie Mae, a junior in high school is planning to enlist next year.

Dependent Travel To Japan Ruled Out By Commandant

The Commandant considers the military situation in Japan inappropriate for dependents of Marine Corps personnel stationed there to join them, according to a recent Marine Corps memorandum.

Dependents who choose to go Japan will have to wait at least a year, and cannot be assured adequate housing when they arrive the memorandum explained.

The memorandum added that every effort will be made to keep the tour of duty of men assigned to Japan as short as possible. The tour will average 14 to 16 months, the memo said.

'Little Symphony' Tickets Available

Tickets for the Thursday, March 25 performance of the North Carolina Little Symphony are available from unit special services offices, from the Officers Wives club and from the Staff NCO Wives club.

Playoff Dates For '54-55 Intramurals Set By Camp Memo

A Camp memorandum released this week designated the playoff dates for the Camp Intramural championships for the 1954-55 seasons.

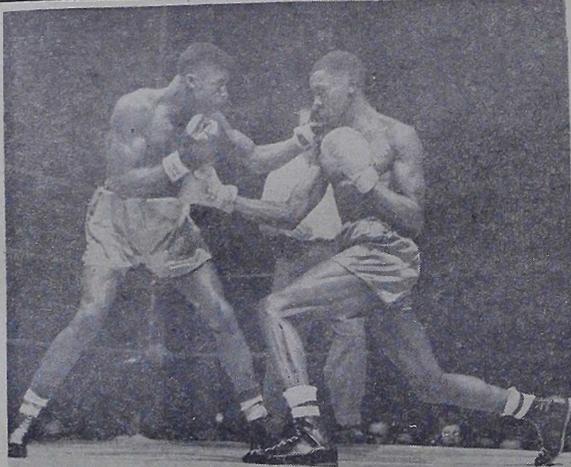

A single or double elimination tournament, as appropriate, will be played to determine the Camp champion from the champions of the 2nd Division, Force Troops and Marine Corps Base.

The memorandum stated that all organization programs will be closely correlated in respect to sports and time period for each sport.

The sports and time periods are indicated below:

- Baseball—2-7 August, 1954.
- Softball—9-14 August, 1954.
- Football—12 November, 1954.
- Basketball—14-21 February, 1955.
- Volleyball—12-17 July, 1954.

There are 3,189 Naval aviation cadets currently in training.

Top Service Track Events Coming To Lejeune In June

The biggest service track show of them all will be held at Lejeune early this summer.

It's the Inter-Service Track and Field Meet and the dates are June 25-26. The top stars of Army, Navy, Marine, Coast Guard and Air Force teams will be on hand to compete for the championships.

Also slated for Lejeune's Liversedge field again this year are the All-Navy, All-Marine meets which will be run-off simultaneously June 17-18.

The All-Navy, All-Marine events drew hundreds of sea service athletes to Lejeune last year.

Plans for the meets were announced this week by Lt. Col. Sidney J. Altman who said arrangements were being made to bring top track and field officials here.

Although the All-Navy and All-Marine meets are held at the same time, there will be no competition between athletes of the two branches. Heats will be run separately. There will be separate finals and separate trophies for winners.

But the National championships will be decided a week later in the Inter-Service event.

All records in the tournys will be official service marks and the list of events includes all standard dual meet runs and field events plus a new event just added this year.

It's called a triathlon and it consists of a two-and-a-half-mile run, a three-hundred-meter free-style swim and pistol-shooting competition.

Camp Boxing Team Wins 4 Of 5 To Near MidLant Conf. Title

The Lejeune boxing team has won four of five bouts at Ft. Myer, Va., to move well on the way to its fourth straight Middle Atlantic Inter-service Athletic conference title.

Eighty-one fighters from 11 service installations are entered in the meet. Fort Bragg's 17-man 82nd Airborne team is the largest. Camp Lejeune is next with 14.

Prominent among the Lejeune entries is Richie Hill, winner of the Eastern Golden Gloves light-heavyweight championship at New York's Madison Square Garden last week.

Other entries include Fort Eustis, Little Creek, Va., Fort Lee, Camp Pickett, Cherry Point, Andrews AFB and Fort McNair.

Monday night's results:

112 lb. class—Don Daniels (CL) decided Arnold Stanley (Fort Lee).

139 lb. class—Ray Allen (NRS) decided Don Davis (CL).

147 lb. class—Randy Horne (CL) KO'd John Fears (Fort McNair).

157 lb. class—Joe Davis (CL) KO'd Bob Miles (Camp Pickett).

Tuesday night's MAISAC fight results:

Hill Cops Light-Heavy In Eastern 'Gloves' Final

Lejeune's Richie Hill punched his way to the light-heavyweight title in the 18th Annual Eastern Golden Gloves championship at famed Madison Square Garden last night.

Hill outpointed New York's Hosie Boil to take the title. Lejeune's middleweight Joe Davis is lost on a third-round technical knockout to John Morris of Pittsburgh.

Hill and Davis were the only Lejeune representatives in the finals. Two other members of the team, Flyweight Don Daniels and Lightweight Walt Byars, bowed out in the semi-finals.

Hill opened strong in the title fight. The marine boxer, scoring with short chopping blows in the infighting, drew blood in the first round. Hill continued the infighting for the next two rounds and gave his opponent a long-over before the bell. Hill used the same strategy in his semi-final bout with Alvin Allen.

Middleweight Davis was a unanimous decision over New York's Herman Call in the semi-finals.

In the championship fight, Hill was way ahead on the third round when he threw a stiff right hand through Morris' guard. He took the maroon count, but was on the ropes after Morris showered vicious right and left punches which stopped it after the round.

Flyweight Don Daniels won a close decision in the semi-finals over New York's Joe Langry Belleau, a southerner who won the most of his semi-finals and counter-punches in the bout.

Lightweight Walt Byars was edged out in the semi-finals by Newark's Alvin Allen. It was all Byars in the first round as he stabbed his opponent with solid right smashes. Left sent Byars to the ropes on an eight count in the second round and the knockdown decision as Fosmire held his own in the third round.

All the local marines in the New York area were representing the team. The Carolina team won the one place with Pitts team competition. Hill, Davis and Byars racked up 11 points.

Hill, Davis and Byars represent the east team in the final round at Madison Square Garden on Golden Gloves night, March 22.

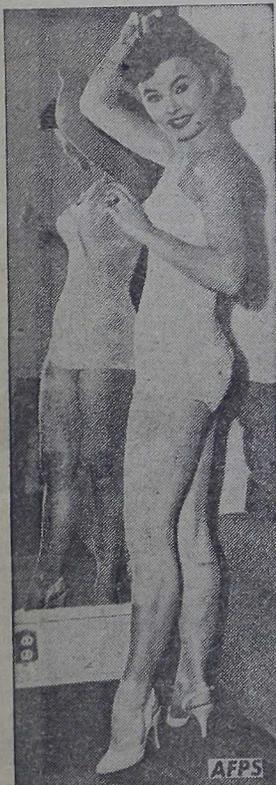

Mrs. G. A. Sharit Elected President Of Ladies Golf Club

Mrs. G. A. Sharit was elected president of the Camp Lejeune Ladies Golf association at the group's semi-annual election March 2.

Other officers are Mrs. J. B. Broadus, vice-president; Mrs. P. T. Kujovsky, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. H. L. Hise, tournament chairman; Mrs. H. D. Hutchcroft, handicap chairman and Mrs. F. R. Roberson, publicity chairman.

Mrs. E. W. Murphy was Class A winner at a three-fourths handicap Crier's tournament held after the meeting, 93-85-8-77. Winner of the 9-hole Class B was Mrs. H. D. Hutchcroft, 60-51-13-38. Class C winner was Mrs. J. Lannagan, 17 puts.

All lady dependents of Lejeune personnel are eligible for membership in the association, Mrs. Sharit said. For information visit the Paradise Point golf course or phone Mrs. Sharit at Jacksonville 7412.

Attention Fishermen

The big channel bass are expected to run true to form. They do, polish up your tackle. Netters have reported Cape Hatteras already. Look for their return to these waters the latter part of the month. If you're interested in fishing county coastal waters this reporter can give you a list (phone 60-158).

Shooting Practice

Large flocks of crows are on the wing again and will be with some fine shooting. If your hunting license is in your vest marshal can issue permits to take predators. To get a stuffed owl, a makeshift blind and a little savvy and a crow call are required. Try the Verona Loop area.

Tread Softly

Our snakes are coming out of hibernation. Copperheads, moccasins and rattlers are indigenous to these parts. Although reports indicate that most are only when stepped on, watch for the moccasins (cobra). They will raise their head, open their whitish mouth and strike whenever you're within reach.

Fact: Contrary to popular belief the age of a rattlesnake is told by the number of rattles on his tail.

Troops' Frank And John Gabriele Double Trouble For Sports Foes

Twins can cause trouble for sports foes. In the case of John and Frank Gabriele, Pfc's with Force Troops 2nd Amphib. Recon. Co., the boys are as alike as two peas in a pod. Schoolmates used that as a means of telling the boys dubbed them "Tooth" and "Toothless" (Official USMC Photo). In school, the brothers were all around athletes, receiving letters in basketball, baseball and football. Acclaimed as "Best Athletes" in their high school class, the twins were also members of the Catholic Youth Organization basketball championship team of Providence and the YMCA championship team of Pawtucket, R. I.

Since joining Force Troops, where both serve as scouts in the Recon Co., the twins have distinguished themselves as members of the company basketball team. John has scored 273 points in 16 games of intramural league play, while Frank has tossed in 244 points during 16 games.

Corps Acts To Curb 'Excessive Number' Of AWOL Marines

"Grave concern" has been expressed by the Commandant of the Marine Corps over "the excessive numbers of absentees and deserters throughout the . . . Corps."

The Commandant called attention to the loss of time and expense involved in the apprehension and return of absentees and deserters. In addition, he stressed the "consequence of offenses more serious than (the) initial absence."

Said the Commandant: "An alarming number of personnel embark upon a course . . . designed to produce their separation from the service. The fact that such actions are ill-advised is reflected in the . . . number of subsequent requests for a change in the nature of such discharges."

"These requests show inability to gain employment, veterans benefits and other benefits of an honored member of society."

The Commandant emphasized that thorough indoctrination in the seriousness of desertion and absenteeism is important. He added "that the employment of sound command principles and the exercise of the highest order of leadership at all levels are the basic means of eliminating the factors which contribute to dissatisfaction with the service . . ."

It's Sink Or Swim For Landlubbers Who Think Water Is Only For Chaser

I was peacefully absorbed in the daily crossword puzzle, searching for a four-letter word denoting an indoor sport, when the phone jangled my nerves.

"How about getting down to the main swimming pool tonight and qualifying," said the voice. "All marines have to know how to swim, you know."

Before I had time to utter Johnny Weismuller, the voice cackled, "and don't forget your trunks and a towel!"

That was enough for me. I had to see what was going on at the pool. Besides, my name was on a company roster stating that I WILL report for swimming qualifications!

Gathering trunks, towel and muscles under my arm, I ambled down for a look. I figured those guys were all wet. Arriving at the pool, I checked with Cpl. Harry Shaffer, acting NCO in charge, regarding the Pool hours: Weekdays: 4-6 p. m. Weekends: noon 'til 7 p. m.

qualification requirements. I figured he was in the swim of things, seeing as how he is in training for the 1956 Olympic swimming squad.

"Anyone seeking qualification has to swim 100 yards, tread water for three minutes, float on his back for a minute, and have a working knowledge of the new form of artificial respiration."

"Whew!" I walked (no running allowed, chile) to the edge of the pool, tested the water with a big toe—and dove in.

After struggling to the surface, I managed to wend my way back and forth, back and forth, back and forth, and back and forth! Five times, or about 100 yards.

"Okay, now tread water," said the corporal. "Move your legs as though you're peddling a bike. That's it. Whoops—come on up, you're not finished yet, Mac!"

After that I felt as though I had more water in me than around me!

After a half-hour rest—flat on my back, I gathered myself together and asked Cpl. Shaffer for more dope on qualification. Figured that I might as well pass the word to those of you who still face your official launching.

He explained that those who fail to qualify are placed in three categories: beginners, intermediates and advanced. As each man improves his swimming techniques, he is upped to the next class.

When instructors feel a man is ready to take his qualifying test again, away he goes—back and forth, back and forth, back and forth, etc.

When you finish, brother, you know you're qualified! Oh, yes, that four-letter word I was searching for—SWIM!

Honors keep piling up for Lejeune boxers who put on such a glittering show in the Golden Gloves tournament in New York last week.

Three marines, all members of the Carolinas Golden Gloves team which tied for second place in the Eastern Golden Gloves finals in Madison Square Garden last week, have been invited to fight on the New York team against Chicago in the annual Inter-city matches for the National championship March 22.

Light-heavyweight Champion Richie Hill, Middleweight Joe Davis, who lost in the finals; and Bantamweight Basil Blackson, who lost a disputed decision to Tony DeCola of New York in the quarter-finals, are the three fighters.

Pete Mello of the CYO and Vic DeFilippo of Seton Hall, coaches of the New York team, were so impressed with Blackson in his quarter-finals loss that they picked him over DeCola, who lost in the finals.

The Carolinas team, consisting of five Lejeune fighters, two civilians and a Fort Jackson man, made its best showing since 1948. Lejeune's Lt. Mike Capriano was coach.

The New York event is a tough one. The Carolinians battled clever boxers from nine other teams from all over the East Coast, most of whom train in gymnasiums and clubs the year 'round. Amateur boxing is just a three-month business in this section of the country. In the Northeast, it's different. You run up against boxers who have been developed in colleges and in clubs, and even ones with Olympic team experience. It's a tough league.

In the most colorful fight of the entire event a Quantico marine by the name of Len Kanthal stole the hearts of the tough New York fans by coming from behind in the second round to whip New York's fair-haired boy and defending champion, Julius Griffith, for the heavyweight crown.

Kanthal, a six foot, two inch, 207 pounder who has been boxing a little over a year, was staggered and almost knocked out in the first round but came back in the second and third rounds to deck the defending champ twice and stagger him three or four times with terrific rights to the jaw. He had the fans screaming and standing on their seats in one of the most stunning upsets of the entire tournament.

Lejeune's own Duke Belton, light-heavy, now has five one-round knockouts to his credit this season and is looking stronger each time he gets in the ring. He knocked out DesLant's Chuck Butler, 1952-53 All-Navy and 1953 Golden Gloves champ, in 50 seconds of the first round in their bout at Portsmouth, Va., last week.

RANDOM ROUND-UP
The New York Yankee front office has learned from the Army that its right-handed pitcher Tom Morgan, now at Fort Sill, Okla., will be discharged April 27.

Wilmer "Vinegar Bend" Mizell, St. Louis Cardinals hurler, will be firing the ball for the Ft. McPherson, Ga., baseball team this season.

A/2C Nancy Simpson, assigned to the Strategic Air Command, is one girl who can take care of herself. She is believed to be the only WAF to win a third degree brown belt in judo.

THE DORSEY BROTHERS

Dorsey Brothers' Combine Plays 'O' Club Date April 1

No joke! Tommy Dorsey, "the world's greatest trombonist," and Jimmy Dorsey, "the world's greatest saxophonist," will entertain at an April Fool's dance at the Officers club April 1.

It will get underway at 9 p.m. and last until 1 a.m. Cost will be 75 cents a person.

Tommy has waxed over 300 records, of which more than seven million copies have been sold. He has put on the road to success such top vocalists as Frank Sinatra, Dick Haymes, Jo Stafford, Connie Haines and the Pied Pipers.

Jimmy's disc-selling record runs over forty million. His arrangements of such tunes as "Amapola," "Marie Elena," and "Green Eyes," are all-time favorites.

Now the brothers have joined forces—for the third time in their fabulous careers. They began together in 1922, split up, rejoined in the famed band of 1934 that featured Bob Crosby as vocalist, Glenn Miller as trombonist and Ray McKinley at the drums, and then split again.

This time they say they are together to stay and claim to have a new group that's better than ever.

Featured with the brothers here will be vocalists Johnny Amoruso, Lynn Roberts and Gordon Polk.

USO DANCE SATURDAY

A formal St. Patrick's day dance will be held from 8 to 11 p.m. Saturday at the Wilmington USO.

A Camp Lejeune orchestra will play. Required dress: uniform or civvies with coat and tie. A table tennis tourney will be held at 2:30.

WHAT A REFLECTION—Lovely Leslie Caron makes like an outdoor gal and reveals a shapely set of legs while she's at it. Want to see more of her? Well, she's appearing in "An American in Paris" at Lejeune theaters this week. Gene Kelly also stars (Photo By Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer).

This Week's Movie Review

THE MAN BETWEEN (3 Bells)

This one's a spy thriller which takes place in the Eastern and Western sectors of Berlin. The conflict arises when Claire Bloom, mistaken for Hildegarde Neff, is abducted by Russian secret police. James Mason attempts to free her in an exciting chase interlarded with suspense and intrigue. It's an English movie.

DRAGON'S GOLD (1 Bell)

If you can't find anything better to do, you might drop in on this one. It's got plenty of action which sweeps from New York to China. Joan Archer is a bonding company investigator after information about a missing seven million dollars. Hillary Brooks adds romance and complications to the overly complex plot.

RETURN TO PARADISE (3 Bells)

Gary Cooper plays a soldier of fortune who tries his luck on a small Pacific isle. He clashes with Barry Jones, a white missionary, who forces the natives to accept his strict moral principles. Cooper finds romance and tragedy when he falls in love with a native girl, Roberta Haynes.

SONG OF THE LAND

This is the documentary-type film. It has no professional actors, and no plot. It's a panorama of nature in color. Scenes range from volcanic eruptions, mountain ranges, pastures, to animals, fish and fowls. Nature in one big conglomerate.

YESTERDAY AND TODAY

This one's in the same category with the one above. It contrasts scenes from old movies with what the modern theater-goer get to see. George Jessel narrates this one. It lasts only 57 minutes.

AN AMERICAN IN PARIS (4 Bells)

It won an Academy award a couple of years ago and it's worth seeing again. The Technicolor is wonderful and so is the dancing by Gene Kelly and Leslie Caron. If you like musicals on a big scale, this is for you. George Gershwin's music makes it well-nigh perfect.

RIOT IN CELL BLOCK 11 (4 Bells)

This is a prison drama, but one that's definitely above average. Neville Brand and Leo Gordon (you may not know the names, but you'll recognize the faces) star as leaders in a prison riot that is a takeoff on an actual outbreak in Folsom prison. The picture holds the audience by its intensity, realism and ever-mounting suspense. Research for the film was done by its producer Walter Wanger who served time for shooting an admirer of his wife, Joan Bennett, a white bait.

YANKEE PASHA (2 Bells)

Jeff Chandler and Rhonda Fleming star in this Technicolor movie based on the novel by Edison Marshall. It's the usual sword-fighting, horse-chase theme, this time with an American cavorting through it making love to a native beauty.

KILLERS FROM SPACE (2 Bells)

Science fiction addicts will find a new twist in this story which delves into the weird and fantastic. Strange creatures from another world have secretly arrived and are concealed beneath the earth's surface. They are harnessing the energy given out by atomic blasts to create enormous reptiles and insects to eliminate the earth's inhabitants. Peter Graves has the lead role as a scientist who falls into the hands of the villains.

IT STARTED IN PARADISE (2 Bells)

It's an English film in unusual Technicolor that is sometimes overdone. It's one big fashion show with a plot vaguely reminiscent of "All About Eve," in that it shows how one woman tries to outdo another in a profession, which in this case is fashion designing. However, it lacks the clever dialogue and superb acting of the former. Cast includes Sheila

Graham, Ian Hunter and 1943

In this one, Hugo Haas, locate a gold mine he years earlier. He makes a deal with Asar for half interest in the mine. He finds it. When he discovered Haas regrets the deal, using his wife Asar. The plot is fairly acting is convincing and nice.

VOLCANO (3 Bells)

This one is for adults. It's Italian, but English dialogue. It's a romance in which something of a joint effort. The star is an Italian actress Anna Magnani also includes Geraldine Brooks and Bruno. Magnani portrays a woman in a very medieval fishing village. When she is captured by a villainous dabbler in a slave market, becomes interested in her. She nobly off in an unusual manner at a climactic rendezvous with a volcano.

DRUMS OF TAHITI

Here's another one of those South Pacific island jobs. This time O'Keefe plots to overthrow control on Tahiti. He sends his sister, Patricia, to the island. It's a romantic interest which is posed as O'Keefe's 1943. Sullivan, member of the police attempts to expose the plot. A feast is given. A volcano erupts and a tropical island at the same time. The picture was originally photographed in black and white. It's a thrilling but far-fetched tale.

MA AND PA KETTLE (2 Bells)

Everyone should be familiar with the family by now, so you know what to expect. It's the greatest, not the worst. The link of very light entertainment. "STRANGER ON THE PROWL" Paul Muni gives a foretelling of a defunct man who kills a woman in a desperate struggle. He meets his end in a fear-stricken police station after a petty offense. Winning the two become friends. There's too much gush and sentiment about an unprincipled traits rather than adds to the picture.

LOVE HAPPY

No word available on this one. Randolph Scott is back again, or was he ever out of his co-starring with Barbara Bennett which helps. The usual horse color.
