

FORT RILEY POST

May 5, 2023

Garrison Command update Manhattan Military Relations Committee luncheon

Col. Michael Foote and Cmd. Sgt. Maj. Jason Poulin, Fort Riley Garrison Command team, give the Manhattan Military Relations Committee a Fort Riley update.

Fort Riley the Podcast

In this week's edition of Fort Riley the Podcast, we take a trip to the outback as we wrangle reptiles and amphibians in the 22nd Annual Herpetological Survey.

Historic Places

This week we visit the Junction City-Fort Riley Trolley Station, 263 Sheridan Ave., south and east of Waters Hall. It was built in 1901, and serviced Fort Riley commuters until 1907.

This week Doc Jargon pins down a long standing traditional term used in some of our most prestigious ceremonies.

Army Worldwide News

- Army innovators prototype deployable microsensors concept
- The Cool of the Evening: 3rd SEAC & MoH Recipient Visit Ft. Riley
- US Army kicks off Exercise Combined Resolve 18

Fort Riley wraps up Month of the Military Child with Kids Fest Celebration

Fort Riley Child and Youth Services wrapped up Month of the Military Child with a Kids Fest celebration April 29. More than 1,100 children, parents, and guests headed to Riley's Community Center to enjoy games, activities, and much more.

