

U.S. ARMY

VOLUME 4
ISSUE 18

FORT RILEY POST

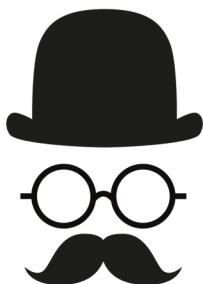

May 12, 2023

22nd Annual herpetological survey uncovers reptiles at Fort Riley

Fort Riley Wildlife Biologist Mike Houck explains how and why a team of scientists and volunteers head out into the wildlands of the installation to count and catalog the various reptile species.

DOC JARGON

This week Doc Jargon explains the Total Force concept and how the integration of all active-duty and reserve components contributes to the Army mission.

Army Worldwide News

- Network design for Army of 2030, beyond
- Big Red One visits Little Sweden
- Army Human Resources Command talks modernization, innovation with industry leaders

Fort Riley the Podcast

In this week's edition of Fort Riley the Podcast, Marc Greene from the Fort Riley Garrison Safety Office talks safe grilling and spills the tea on the upcoming safety fair.

Historic Places

This week we visit a remnant of the interurban trolley line between Manhattan and Junction City. The trolley bridge over Three Mile Creek near the intersection of Williston Point Road and Huebner Road was constructed in May 1914.

Hospital celebrates Nurses Week

Irwin Army Community Hospital began the week with a thank-you for nurses. Celebration activities included a ceremonial cake cutting and proclamation signing ceremony.

Home of the First Infantry Division