

U.S. ARMY

VOLUME 5
ISSUE 1

FORT RILEY POST

January 12, 2024

Winter weather settles on region

Fort Riley was on minimal manning and limited services status on Tuesday due to a winter storm front that moved across the Flint Hills Region. Another weather system is bringing extreme cold temps to the area this weekend. For updates on the winter weather campaign, and tips on how you can keep your family winter ready, visit the Fort Riley website's Ready Army section or visit the official Facebook page album: Winter Weather Preparedness. Listen to local news and weather reports for current watches and warnings.

DOC JARGON

Doc Jargon, cuts through the jargon that is the language of the U.S. Army. This week Doc Jargon explains what a chiclet chart is and why it is stuck in Army lingo.

Army Worldwide News

- New Army Space Vision: Actualizing multidomain operations
- The transformative power of wearable health and performance devices
- Army computer scientists advancing AI to support warfighter

Fort Riley the Podcast

Winter weather can wreak havoc on pipes and people. Listen in for tips to be safe and warm during the upcoming extreme low temps scheduled to hit the region this weekend.

Historic Places

This week we explore more of the brick structures on Carpenter Avenue. Several served as 4-family apartments, and still do. They were built during a construction program that replaced temporary WWI structures with permanent ones for a peacetime Army. The program ran, nationwide from 1927 until about 1940.

Monthly Retirement Ceremony

The first post-wide retirement ceremony for 2024 at Fort Riley was held in King Field House Jan. 11, 2024. In case you missed the event, you can watch the video here. Thank you each for your dedication and service. Your Fort Riley family wishes you well on your next life phase.

Home of the First Infantry Division