Fort Riley the Podcast

This episode of Fort Riley the Podcast is dedicated to the Soldiers of the 1st Infantry Division who served during the war in Vietnam. We head to the Library of Congress for a few of the personal stories gathered there.

Historic Places

This week we look again at Marshall Army Airfield. Several permanent miscellaneous and support structures were erected at Fort Riley in 1941 as the installation began to prepare for the nation's possible entry into World War II. Construction that year included building 751, designed and built as a vehicle storage shed.

Fort Riley Child Development Centers host Firefighter Fridays

Each week, a team from one of the Fort Riley fire stations visits a CDC and interacts with children in a classroom setting, reading to them or sitting at tables and coloring with the children. Firefighter Friday started in August 2023. It is a partnership between CDC leaders and Fort Riley's Fire and Emergency Services.
