Fort Riley the Podcast

This episode brings you information about April as Child Abuse Prevention Month. Joining us today is Ms. Carolyn Toliver Lee who is one of the Family Advocacy Program specialists. She brings us information on classes and programs available to Fort Riley families.

Historic Places

Forsyth Avenue is named for Col. James A. Forsyth who commanded the 7th U. S. Cavalry in the late 1880s and was the first commandant of the Cavalry and Light Artillery School. In these dozen homes, live many of the post's senior officers and commanders, as has been the case for more than one hundred years.

Fort Riley children honored during MOMC parade on Historic Main Post

Fort Riley's annual Month of the Military Child Parade was followed by a proclamation signing declaring April as the Month of the Military Child and Child Abuse Prevention Month. Check out the Flickr album.
