

A Bi-Weekly Publication

NETCOM Buzz

February 25, 2025

Staying Focused on our Mission

Our shared mission is our priority, and by staying focused on our daily responsibilities, we can foster a positive and collaborative atmosphere. Thank you for your understanding and commitment to our collective success. NETCOM... WE ARE the Voice of the Army.

CCP/SSAT Validates Readiness in ARSOUTH Deployment Exercise

The CCP/SSAT took part in the ARSOUTH Level I Deployment Readiness Exercise (DRE) to validate operational procedures and ensure mission readiness for real-world deployments under SOUTHCOM. This exercise reinforces the team's commitment to rapid response and operational excellence in supporting missions within the SOUTHCOM area of responsibility.

Phillipine Army Signal Regiment Deputy Commander Visits 2nd SIG BN to Strengthen Unit Relations

COL Alladin A. Jove's visit to 2nd SIG BN at Camp General Mateo Capinpin in Brgy Sampaloc, Tanay, Rizal, aimed to strengthen relations with subordinate units, assess personnel morale, and recognize achievements. He also conducted a Talk to Troops, emphasizing firearm security and providing encouragement to ensure mission success.

7th SIG CMD Exceeds Retention Goals, Honors Top Career Counselors and Units

Exceeding its FY24 and FY25 retention goals top-performing Career Counselors and units were recognized with "Champion Retention" belts, coins of excellence and Army Commendation Medals for their dedication. Standout Career Counselors, including SSG Andrew Scott, SFC Michael Taylor, and SFC Chadney Diggs, were recognized for their contributions to the com-mand's retention success.

NETWORK ENTERPRISE TECHNOLOGY COMMAND

HHD 56th SIG BN Service Members Showcase Tactical Communications at Harmony School STEM Festival

HHD service members participated in the Harmony School of Science STEM Festival, presenting a static display of tactical communications equipment. The exhibit showcased the technology used in real-world missions and training, aiming to educate and inspire students to explore careers in STEM-related fields.

Soldiers of 1st SIG BDE go Head-to-Head in Several Competitive Best Squad Events

Every challenge demands precision, teamwork, and dedication, and they continue to rise to the occasion. Their hard work and determination reflect their commitment to excellence, proving why they are among the best.!

Paul Carbonell is Driving Excellence in Customer Support at Fort Knox Network Enterprise Center

Paul Carbonell is the Team Lead of the Customer Support Branch at the Fort Knox Network Enterprise Center, where he has been a vital part of the team since 2007. With a focus on managing, troubleshooting, and enhancing IT support processes, Paul ensures the seamless operation of Ft. Knox's mission-critical systems.

311th SIG CMD Soldiers Enjoy Pancake Breakfast Hosted by the Family Readiness Group

The opportunity to connect with fellow families builds a sense of community and the efforts are all deeply appreciated. Those efforts, fostering support within our Army family do not go unnoticed, and we are incredibly grateful for all that you do!

Local Leaders Unite at Fort Detrick Alliance Breakfast to Foster Community Relations

The Ft. Detrick Alliance Breakfast brought together local business and organization leaders. This quarterly event aims to strengthen and maintain critical partnerships between the military installation and the local community.

307th SIG BN Wins Best Squad Competition, Advances to Next Round

The final day of the Best Squad Competition began with a challenging 12-mile ruck march at 0400, followed by the Best Squad Competition Board and an awards ceremony.