

NAVY MEDICAL CORPS LEGENDS VICE ADMIRAL JOEL BOONE, MC, USN

Vice Adm. Joel T. Boone (1889-1974) holds the distinction as the most highly decorated Navy medical officer in history. His awards include the Medal of Honor, Distinguished Service Cross and six Silver Stars for extraordinary heroism while treating casualties under fire.

6th regimental surgeon at the World War I battles of Belleau Wood (June 1918) and Vierzy (July 1918).

Served as physician to 3 U.S. presidents (Harding, Coolidge, and Hoover).

Invented the game "Hoover Ball" to ensure President Hoover and his cabinet got regular exercise.

Navy Medicine's representative at the Japanese surrender ceremonies aboard USS Missouri (1945).

Spearheaded the first medical survey of U.S. coal mines (1946-1947) and led effort to fit helo-decks aboard hospital ships (1950).

Namesake of USS Boone (FFG 28) and the Boone Branch Health Clinic Joint Expeditionary Base, Little Creek-Fort Story, Va.

