Fort Leonard Wood airmen lend specialized skills to upgrade homeland defense training

Airmen with Fort Leonard Wood's U.S. Air Force detachment are putting their new pavement skills to the test by laying concrete at the Urban Search and Rescue training complex — enhancing training for the airmen now and future Homeland Defense Civil Support Office students.

Fort Leonard Wood youth get first dibs on trout fishing Feb. 28

Open season to fish trout at Fort Leonard Wood's Stone Mill Spring is March 1 through Oct. 31, but the Youth Trout Fishing Derby provides anglers ages 15 and younger the opportunity to hook the freshwater fish a few days early on Feb. 28.

A Legacy of Empathy: The Army Nurse Corps at 125 Years

As the U.S. Army Nurse Corps marks its 125th anniversary on Feb. 2, its legacy continues to be shaped by the compassion, professionalism and dedication of the Soldiers who serve in its ranks.

DOW: Meet the military athletes competing in the 2026 Winter Olympics

The Winter Olympic Games in Milan and Cortina, Italy, begin Feb. 6. While this Olympics will not feature athletes from the Navy or Marine Corps, there are plenty of World Class Athlete Program participants from the Army and Air Force — including one Soldier who was named as a flag bearer for the opening ceremony.
