

LA Rams Cheerleaders and Mascot Press Release

Cheerleaders from the Los Angeles Rams football team will be touring with Armed Forces Entertainment (AFE) this September. Members of the cheer squad will conduct meet-and-greet events and youth cheer clinics at bases in Australia ahead of their game at the historic Melbourne Cricket Ground against the San Francisco 49ers. The tour will include five events from September 1–7, 2026, and features cheerleaders Alyssa S., Delany D., Eswinn D., Jose C., Kailey L., Kylie Y., Lily L., and Mimi W, as well as the team's mascot, Rampage.

Alyssa S. is in her second season as a Los Angeles Rams cheerleader. Outside of cheer, she is working toward her doctorate in physical therapy and teaches dance. She has been dancing for nearly 20 years. In her free time, she enjoys taking workout classes, shopping, and spending time with friends and family.

Delany D. is in her third season as a Los Angeles Rams cheerleader. Outside of cheering, she teaches dance and loves inspiring the next generation of dancers. She is passionate about fitness and helping others through her health and wellness business. She's very excited to be on the tour and grateful for the experience.

Eswinn D. is proud to have been born and raised in Los Angeles, California, the entertainment capital of the world. He is honored to be entering his seventh season representing the Los Angeles Rams organization. When not cheering on the team, he teaches dance and enjoys working with youth in an after-school program. As a nature lover who embraces the outdoors, he spends his days off at the beach, roller skating, visiting local parks, and taking walks to decompress. He also unwinds by going to the movies and completing pages in his coloring books, a cherished hobby.

Jose C. is a six-year member of the Los Angeles Rams Cheerleaders and has spent four seasons as a captain. In his free time, he enjoys trying new coffee spots, watching movies with friends, and going to concerts. Outside of cheer, he works at a fitness studio and is a dance instructor and choreographer.

Kailey L. is in her second season as a Los Angeles Rams cheerleader. She graduated from San Diego State University with a degree in Child Development and looks forward to teaching elementary education. Outside of cheer, she loves teaching and inspiring young dancers, spending time at the beach, and taking Pilates classes. She is grateful to be part of the Los Angeles Rams organization and cannot wait for another amazing season.

Kylie Y. is in her fourth season as a Los Angeles Rams cheerleader. She is from San Diego, where she enjoys soaking up the sun at the beach with a good burrito and matcha in hand. Outside of cheerleading, she loves teaching dance and sharing her passion for movement with others. She is also grateful for the opportunity to represent the Rams and looks forward to another unforgettable season.

Lily L. is in her second season as a Los Angeles Rams cheerleader. In college, she studied neuroscience and global medicine. Off the field, you can find her practicing yoga, taking her Pomeranians on walks, and spending time with her family.

Mimi W. is in her third season with the Los Angeles Rams cheerleaders. Her favorite parts of being a cheerleader are performing routines and meeting amazing people everywhere she travels. When not dancing with the team, she enjoys spending time at the beach and teaching dance.

AFE delivers world-class entertainment to U.S. troops and their families overseas, strengthening their resilience, boosting morale, and contributing to readiness. These engaging experiences connect servicemembers to home, foster a sense of belonging, ease the challenges of deployment, and support mental health.
