

Guitaro5000 - Sing With Me Press Release

Guitaro5000, a musician and singer whose popular social media segment “Sing With Me” has reached millions, will be performing his interactive show on tour with Armed Forces Entertainment (AFE). The tour will feature 4 shows from October 7-10 at bases in Alaska.

Guitaro 5000 (born Reginald Guillaume, 1987) of Haitian American origin is a guitarist and singer. His performance career started in the NYC subways in 2010. It's there he would play for people and aim to start dance parties and singalongs with New York commuters. This is where his highly interactive style of performance took shape, with each performance designed to draw people out of themselves and become a part of the show. In 2020, Guitaro 5000's YouTube show called “Sing With Me” rose to popularity--a show in which he approaches random people on the street and offers to play guitar while they sing their favorite song. He has gained millions of followers on YouTube, Facebook, and Tiktok, and continues to bring interactive stage performances worldwide.

AFE delivers world-class entertainment to U.S. troops and their families overseas, strengthening resilience, boosting morale, and contributing to readiness. These engaging experiences connect servicemembers to home, foster a sense of belonging, ease the challenges of deployment, and support mental health.
